This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

BOOK III.

IT WAS THE HOUR, when Huſwife Morn,
With Pearl and Linen hangs each thorn;
When happy Bards, who can regale
Their Muſe with country air and ale,
Ramble afield, to Brooks and Bow'rs,
To pick up Sentiments and Flow'rs;
When Dogs and Squires from kennel fly,
And Hogs and Farmers quit their ſty;

And plunder in the face of day.

But hold—whilſt thus we play the
In bold contempt of ev'ry rule,
Things of no conſequence expreſſing
Deſcribing now, and now digreſſing,
To the diſcredit of our ſkill,
The main concern is ſtanding ſtill.

In Plays indeed, when ſtorms of ra Tempeſtuous in the Soul engage,
Or when the Spirits weak and low,
Are ſunk in deep diſtreſs and woe,
With ſtrict Propriety we hear
DESCRIPTION ſtealing on the ear

We muſt for ever be diſgrac'd
With all the nicer ſons of Taſte,
If once, the Shadow to purſue,
We let the Subſtance out of view.
Our means muſt uniformly tend
In due proportion to their end,
And ev'ry paſſage aptly join
To bring about the one deſign.
Our Friends themſelves cannot admit
This rambling, wild digreſſive Wit,
No—not thoſe very Friends, who found
Their Credit on the ſelf-ſame ground.

Peace, my good grumbling Sir—for once,
Sunk in the ſolemn, formal Dunce,
This Coxcomb ſhall your fears beguile——
We will be dull—that you may ſmile.

Come METHOD, come in all thy pride,
DULLNESS and WHITEHEAD by thy ſide,
DULLNESS and METHOD ſtill are one,
And WHITEHEAD is their darling Son.
Not He whoſe pen, above controul,
Struck terror to the guilty Soul,

Made Folly tremble thro' her ſtate,
And Villains bluſh at being Great,
Whilſt he himſelf, with ſteady face,
Diſdaining Modeſty and Grace,
Could blunder on thro' thick and thin,
Thro' ev'ry mean and ſervile ſin,
Yet ſwear by PHILIP and by PAUL,
He nobly ſcorn'd to bluſh at all;
But HE, who in the Laureat Chair,
By Grace, not Merit planted there,
In aukward pomp is ſeen to ſit,
And by his Patent proves his Wit;
For favours of the Great, we know,
Can Wit as well as rank beſtow,
And they who, without one pretenſion,
Can get for Fools a place or penſion,
Muſt able be ſuppos'd of courſe
(If reaſon is allow'd due force)
To give ſuch qualities and grace,
As may equip them for the place.

But HE—who meaſures as he goes,
A mongrel kind of tinkling proſe,

And is too frugal to diſpenſe,
At once both Poetry and Senſe,
Who, from amidſt his ſlumb'ring guards,
Deals out a Charge to Subject Bards,
Where Couplets after Couplets creep
Propitious to the reign of ſleep,
Yet ev'ry word imprints an awe,
And all his dictates paſs for law
With BEAUX, who ſimper all around,
And BELLES, who die in ev'ry ſound.
For in all things of this relation,
Men moſtly judge from ſituation,
Nor in a thouſand find we one,
Who really weighs what's ſaid or done.
They deal out Cenſure, or give Credit,
Merely from him who did or ſaid it.

But HE—who, happily ſerene,
Means nothing, yet would ſeem to mean;
Who rules and cautions can diſpenſe
With all that humble inſolence,
Which Impudence in vain would teach,
And none but modeſt men can reach;

As Chaſte, as ſimple as the Ma

Thee, WHITEHEAD, Thee I now invoke,
Sworn foe to Satyr's gen'rous ſtroke,
Which makes unwilling Conſcience feel,
And wounds, but only wounds to heal.
Good-natur'd, eaſy Creature, mild,
And gentle as a new-born Child,
Thy heart would never once admit
E'en wholeſome rigour to thy Wit;
Thy head, if Conſcience ſhould comply,
Its kind aſſiſtance would deny,
And lend thee neither force, nor art,
To drive it onward to the heart.
O may thy ſacred pow'r controul
Each fiercer working of my ſoul,
Damp every ſpark of genuine fire,
And languors, like thine own, inſpire;
Trite be each Thought, and ev'ry Line
As Moral, and as Dull as THINE.

To aſcertain the very ſpot,
Nor yet to give you a relation,
How it eluded Gravitation——)

Whom Men as well as Gods call F.

Proof of perpetual motion hung,

Like her own Trumpet made of braſs

Or if, once in a thouſand years,
A perfect Character appears,
Such as of late with joy and pride
My Soul poſſeſs'd, ere ARROW died;
Or ſuch as, Envy muſt allow,
The World enjoys in H——— now;
This Hag, who aims at all alike,
At Virtues e'en like theirs will ſtrike,
And make faults, in the way of trade,
When ſhe can't find them ready made.

All things ſhe takes in, ſmall and great,
Talks of a Toy-ſhop and a State,
Of Wits and Fools, of Saints and Kings,
Of Garters, Stars, and Leading-Strings,
Of Old Lords fumbling for a Clap,
And young Ones full of Pray'r and Pap,
Of Courts, of Morals, and Tye-Wigs,
Of Bears, and Serjeants dancing jigs,
Of Grave Profeſſors at the Bar
Learning to thrum on the Guittar,
Whilſt Laws are ſlubber'd o'er in haſte,
And Judgment ſacrific'd to TASTE;

Of

[illegible] out HUMANITY;
Of Coronations, where each heart,
With honeſt raptures, bore a part;
Of City Feaſts, where ELEGANCE
Was proud her Colours to advance,
And GLUTTONY, uncommon caſe,
Could only get the ſecond place;
Of New rais'd Pillars in the State,
Who muſt be good as being great;
Of Shoulders, on which HONOURS ſit
Almoſt as clumſily as Wit;
Of doughty Knights, whom titles pleaſe,
But not the payment of the Fees;
Of Lectures, whither ev'ry Fool
In ſecond childhood goes to ſchool;
Of [illegible]

By help of Crutch, a needful Brother,
Learning of HART to dance with t'other;
Of Doctors regularly bred
To fill the manſions of the dead;
Of Quacks (for Quacks they muſt be ſtill
Who ſave when FORMS require to kill)
Who life, and health, and vigour give
To HIM, not one would wiſh to live;
Of Artiſts who, with nobleſt view,
Diſintereſted plans purſue,
For trembling worth the ladder raiſe,
And mark out the aſcent to praiſe;
Of Arts and Sciences, where meet
Sublime, Profound, and all compleat,
A SET (whom at ſome fitter time
The MUSE ſhall conſecrate in Rime)
Who humble ARTISTS to out-do
A far more lib'ral plan purſue,
And let their well-judg'd PREMIUMS fall
On thoſe who have no worth at all;
Of Sign Poſt Exhibitions, rais'd
For laughter more than to be prais'd (Tho' by the way we cannot ſee Why Praiſe and Laughter mayn't agree)

Where

Where genuine HUMOUR runs to waſte,
And juſtly chides our want of Taſte,
Cenſur'd, like other things, tho' good,
Becauſe they are not underſtood.

To higher ſubjects now SHE ſoars,
And talks of Politics and Whores
(If to your nice and chaſter ears
That Term indelicate appears,
SCRIPTURE politely ſhall refine,
And melt It into Concubine)
In the ſame breath ſpread BOURBON's league
And publiſhes the Grand Intrigue,
In BRUSSELS or our own GAZETTE,
Makes armies fight which never met,
And circulates the Pox or Plague
To LONDON, by the way of HAGUE,
For all the lies which there appear,
Stamp'd with Authority come here;
Borrows as freely from the gabble
Of ſome rude leader of a rabble,
Or from the quaint harangues of thoſe
Who lead a Nation by the Noſe,

As

As from thoſe ſtorms which, void of Art,
Burſt from our honeſt PATRIOT's heart,
When ELOQUENCE and VIRTUE (late Remark'd to live in mutual hate)
Fond of each other's Friendſhip grown,
Claim ev'ry ſentence for their own,
And with an equal joy recites
Parade Amours, and half-pay Fights,
Perform'd by Heroes of fair Weather,
Merely by dint of Lace and Feather,
As thoſe rare acts which HONOUR taught
Our daring Sons where GRANBY fought,
Or thoſe which, with ſuperior ſkill,
——— atchiev'd by ſtanding ſtill.

This HAG (the curious if they pleaſe
May ſearch from earlieſt Times to theſe,
And POETS they will always ſee,
With Gods and Goddeſſes make free,
Treating them all, except the MUSE,
As ſcarcely fit to wipe their ſhoes)

How our TRIUMVIRATE had paſs'd

Night's dreadful interval; and heard,
With ſtrict attention, ev'ry word,
Soon as ſhe ſaw return of light,
On founding pinions took her flight.

Swift thro' the regions of the ſky,
Above the reach of human eye,
Onward ſhe drove the furious blaſt,
And rapid as a whirlwind paſt
O'er Countries, once the ſeats of Taſte,
By Time and Ignorance laid waſte;
O'er lands, where former ages ſaw
Reaſon and Truth the only Law,
Where Arts and Arms, and Public Love
In gen'rous emu'ation ſtrove,
Where Kings were proud of legal ſway,
And Subjects happy to obey,
Tho' now in ſlav'ry ſunk, and broke
To Superſtition's galling yoke,
Of Arts, of Arms, no more they tell,
Or Freedom, which with Science fell.
By Tyrants aw'd, who never find
The paſſage to their people's mind,

To whom the joy was never known
Of planting in the heart their throne,
Far from all proſpect of relief,
Their hours in fruitleſs pray'rs and grief,
For loſs of bleſſings they employ,
Which WE unthankfully enjoy.

Now is the time (had we the will)
T' amaze the Reader with our ſkill,
To pour out ſuch a flood of knowledge
As might ſuffice for a whole College,
Whilſt with a true Poetic force
We trac'd the Goddeſs in her courſe,
Sweetly deſcribing, in our flight,
Each Common and Uncommon Sight,
Making our journal gay and pleaſant,
With things long paſt, and things now preſent.

Ah, woeful me! Ah, woeful Man!
Ah! woeful All, do all we can!
Who can on earthly things depend
From one to t'other moment's end?

HONOUR, WIT, GENIUS, WEALTH, and Good lack! good lack! are tranſitory,
Nothing is ſure and ſtable found,
The very Earth itſelf turns round.

On what can Fleſh and Blood depend!
Ah woeful me! Ah woeful Man!
Ah woeful All, do All we can!

ENGLAND (for that's at laſt the Scene,
Tho' Worlds on Worlds ſhould riſe betwee
Whither we muſt our courſe purſue)
ENGLAND ſhould call into review
Times long ſince paſt indeed, but not
By ENGLISHMEN to be forgot,
Tho' ENGLAND, once ſo dear to Fame,
Sinks in GREAT BRITAIN's dearer name.

Here could we mention Chiefs of old,
In plain and rugged honour bold,

To Virtue kind, to Vice ſevere,
Strangers to Bribery and Fear,
Who kept no wretched Clans in awe,
Who never broke or warp'd the Law;
Patriots, whom, in her better days,
Old Rome might have been proud to raiſe.
Who ſteady to their Country's claim,
Boldly ſtood up in Freedom's name,
E'en to the teeth of Tyrant Pride,
And, when they could no more, THEY DIED.

There (ſtriking contraſt) might we place
A ſervile, mean, degen'rate race,
Hirelings, who valued nought but gold,
By the beſt Bidder bought and ſold,
Truants from Honour's ſacred Laws,
Betrayers of their Country's cauſe,
The Dupes of Party, Tools of Pow'r,
Slaves to the Minion of an Hour,
Lacquies, who watch'd a Favourite's nod,
And took a Puppet for their God.

Sincere and honeſt in our Rimes,
How might we praiſe theſe happier times!

How might the Muſe exalt her lays,
And wanton in a Monarch's praiſe!
Tell of a Prince in ENGLAND born,
Whoſe Virtues ENGLAND's crown adorn,
In Youth a pattern unto age,
So Chaſte, ſo Pious, and ſo Sage,
Who true to all thoſe ſacred bands,
Which private happineſs demands,
Yet never lets them riſe above
The ſtronger ties of Public Love.

With conſcious Pride ſee ENGLAND ſtand,
Our holy Charter in her hand,
She waves it round, and o'er the Iſle
See Liberty and Courage ſmile.
No more ſhe mourns her treaſures hurl'd
In Subſidies to all the world;
No more by foreign threats diſmay'd,
No more deceiv'd with foreign aid,
She deals out Sums to petty States,
Whom Honour ſcorns, and Reaſon hates,
But, wiſer by Experience grown,
Finds ſafety in herſelf alone.

Whilſt thus, ſhe cries, my children, ſtand,
An honeſt, valiant, native band,
A train'd MILITIA, brave and free,
True to their KING, and true to ME,
No foreign Hirelings ſhall be known,
Nor need we Hirelings of our own.
Under a juſt and pious reign
The Stateſman's ſophiſtry is vain,
Vain is each vile corrupt pretence,
Theſe are my natural defence,
Their Faith I know, and they ſhall prove
The Bulwark of the KING they Love.

Theſe, and a thouſand things beſide,
Did we conſult a Poet's Pride,
Some gay, ſome ſerious, might be ſaid,
But ten to one they'd not be read,
Or were they by ſome curious few,
Not even thoſe would think them true.
For, from the time that JUBAL firſt
Sweet ditties to the harp rehears'd,
Poets have always been ſuſpected
Of having Truth in Rime neglected,

That Bard except, who, from his Youth
Equally fam'd for Faith and Truth,
By Prudence taught, in courtly chime
To Courtly ears, brought Truth in Rime.

But tho' to Poets we allow,
No matter when acquir'd or how,
From Truth unbounded deviation,
Which cuſtom calls Imagination,
Yet can't they be ſuppos'd to lye
One half ſo faſt as FAME can fly.
Therefore (to ſolve this Gordian knot,
A point we almoſt had forgot)
To courteous Readers be it known,
That fond of verſe and falſhood grown,
Whilſt we in ſweet digreſſion ſung,
FAME check'd her flight, and held her tongue,
And now purſues with double force,
And double ſpeed her deſtin'd courſe,
Nor ſtops, till ſhe the place arrives
Where GENIUS ſtarves, and DULLNESS thrives
Where Riches Virtue are eſteem'd,
And craft is trueſt Wiſdom deem'd,

Where COMMERCE proudly rears her throne
In State to other Lands unknown,
Where to be cheated, and to cheat,
Strangers from ev'ry quarter meet,
Where CHRISTIANS, JEWS, and TURKS ſhake hands,
United in Commercial bands,
All of one Faith, and that, to own
No God but INTEREST alone.

When Gods and Goddeſſes come down
To look about them here in Town,
(For Change of Air is underſtood,
By Sons of Phyſic to be good,
In due proportions now and then
For theſe ſame Gods as well as Men)
By Cuſtom rul'd, and not a Poet
So very dull, but he muſt know it,
In order to remain incog.
They always travel in a fog.
For if we Majeſty expoſe
To vulgar eyes, too cheap it grows,
The force is loſt, and free from awe,
We ſpy and cenſure eve'ry flaw.

But well preſerv'd from public view,
It always breaks forth freſh and new,
Fierce as the Sun in all his pride,
It ſhines, and not a ſpot's deſcried.

Was JOVE to lay his thunder by,
And with his brethren of the ſky
Deſcend to earth, and friſk about,
Like chatt'ring N, from rout to rout,
He would be found, with all his hoſt,
A nine days Wonder at the moſt.
Would we in trim our Honours wear,
We muſt preſerve them from the air,
What is familiar, Men neglect,
However worthy of reſpect.
Did they not find a certain friend
In Novelty to recommend, (Such we by ſad experience find
The wretched folly of mankind)
Venus might unattractive ſhine,
And H fix no eyes but mine.

But FAME, who never car'd a jot
Whether ſhe was admir'd or not,

And

And never bluſh'd to ſhew her face
At any time in any place,
In her own ſhape, without diſguiſe,
And viſible to mortal eyes,
On CHANGE, exact at ſeven o'clock,
Alighted on the Weather-Cock,
Which, planted there time out of mind,
To note the changes of the wind,
Might no improper emblem be
Of her own mutability.

Thrice did She ſound her TRUMP (the ſame
Which from the firſt belong'd to FAME,
An old ill-favour'd Inſtrument
With which the Goddeſs was content,
Tho' under a politer race
Bag-pipes might well ſupply its place)
And thrice awaken'd by the ſound,
A gen'ral din prevail'd around,
CONFUSION thro' the City paſt,
And FEAR beſtrode the dreadful blaſt.

Thoſe fragrant Currents, which we meet
Diſtilling ſoft thro' ev'ry ſtreet,

Affrighted

Affrighted from the uſual courſe,
Ran murm'ring upwards to their ſource;
Statues wept tears of blood, as faſt
As when a CÆSAR breath'd his laſt;
Horſes, which always us'd to go,
A foot-pace in my Lord Mayor's Show,
Impetuous from their Stable broke,
And ALDERMEN and OXEN ſpoke.

Halls felt the force, Tow'rs ſhook around,
And Steeples nodded to the ground,
ST. PAUL himſelf (ſtrange ſight!) was ſeen
To bow as humbly as the Dean.
The Manſion-Houſe, for ever plac'd
A monument of City Taſte,
Trembl'd, and ſeem'd aloud to groan
Thro' all that hideous weight of ſtone.

To ſtill the ſound, or ſtop her ears,
Remove the cauſe or ſenſe of fears,
PHYSIC, in College ſeated high,
Would any thing but Med'cine try.
No more in PEWT'RERS-HALL was heard
The proper force of ev'ry word,

Thoſe ſeats were deſolate become,
A hapleſs ELOCUTION dumb.
FORM, City-born, and City-bred,
By ſtrict Decorum ever led,
Who threeſcore years had known the grace
Of one, dull, ſtiff, unvaried pace;
TERROR prevailing over PRIDE,
Was ſeen to take a larger ſtride;
Worn to the bone, and cloath'd in rags,
See AV'RICE cloſer hug his bags;
With her own weight unwieldy grown,
See CREDIT totter on her Throne;
VIRTUE alone, had She been there,
The mighty ſound, unmov'd, could bear.

Up from the gorgeous bed, where Fate
Dooms annual Fools to ſleep in ſtate,
To ſleep ſo ſound that not one gleam
Of Fancy can provoke a dream,
Great DULLMAN ſtarted at the ſound,
Gap'd, rubb'd his eyes, and ſtar'd around.
Much did he wiſh to know, much fear
Whence ſounds ſo horrid ſtruck his ear,

So much unlike thoſe peaceful notes,
That equal harmony which floats
On the dull wing of City air,
Grave prelude to a feaſt or fair;
Much did he inly ruminate
Concerning the decrees of Fate,
Revolving, tho' to little end,
What this ſame trumpet might portend.

Could the FRENCH—no—that could not be Under BUTE's active miniſtry,
Too watchful to be ſo deceiv'd,
Have ſtolen hither unperceiv'd?
To NEWFOUNDLAND indeed we know,
Fleets of war unobſerv'd may go,
Or, if obſerv'd, may be ſuppos'd,
At intervals when Reaſon doz'd,
No other point in view to bear
But Pleaſure, Health, and Change of Air.
But Reaſon ne'er could ſleep ſo ſound
To let an enemy be found
In our Land's heart, ere it was known
They had departed from their own.

Or could his Succeſſor (Ambition Is ever haunted with ſuſpicion)
His daring Succeſſor elect,
All Cuſtoms, rules, and forms reject,
And aim, regardleſs of the crime,
To ſeize the chair before his time;

Or (deeming this the lucky hour,
Seeing his Countrymen in pow'r,
Thoſe Countrymen, who, from the firſt,
In tumults and Rebellion nurs'd,
Howe'er they wear the maſk of art,
Still love a STUART in their heart)
Could SCOTTISH CHARLES ——

Conjecture thus,

That mental IGNIS FATUUS,
Led his poor brains a weary dance
From FRANCE to ENGLAND, hence to FRANCE,
'Till INFORMATION (in the ſhape
Of Chaplain learned, good SIR CRAPE,
A lazy, lounging, pamper'd Prieſt,
Well known at ev'ry City feaſt,

For he was ſeen much oft'ner there
Than in the Houſe of God at Pray'r;
Who always ready in his place,
Ne'er let God's creatures wait for grace,
Tho', as the beſt Hiſtorians write,
Leſs fam'd for Faith than Appetite,
His diſpoſition to reveal,
The Grace was ſhort, and long the meal;
Who always would exceſs admit,
If Haunch or Turtle came with it,
And ne'er engag'd in the defence
Of ſelf-denying Abſtinence,
When he could fortunately meet
With any thing he lik'd to eat;
Who knew that Wine, on Scripture plan,
Was made to chear the heart of Man,
Knew too, by long experience taught,
That Chearfulneſs was kill'd by thought,
And from thoſe premiſes collected,
(Which few perhaps would have ſuſpected)
That none, who with due ſhare of ſenſe
Obſerv'd the ways of Providence,
Could with ſafe Conſcience leave off drinking,
'Till they had loſt the pow'r of thinking;

With eyes half-clos'd came waddling in,
And, having ſtrok'd his double chin,

Paid for a poor Electorate,
Which after all the coſt and rout
It had been better much without) Briefly (for Breakfaſt, you muſt know,
Was waiting all the while below)
Related, bowing to the ground,
The cauſe of that uncommon ſound,
Related too, that at the door,
POMPOSO, PLAUSIBLE, and M—E,
Begg'd that FAME might not be allow'd,
Their ſhame to publiſh to the crowd;
That ſome new laws he would provide,
(If Old could not be miſapplied,
With as much eaſe and ſafety there,
As they are miſapplied elſewhere)
By which it might be conſtrued treaſon
In Man to exerciſe his reaſon,
Which might ingeniouſly deviſe
One puniſhment for Truth and Lies,

In one corrupted rotten
By whose falſe gloſs th
Might be interpreted :

Who mark'd the child

The mighty DULLMAN
That office of diſgrace t

A Preacher deem'd of greateſt note,
For Preaching that which others wrote.

Had DULLMAN now (and Fools we ſee Seldom want Curioſity) Conſented (but the mourning ſhade,
Of GASCOYNE haſt'ned to his aid,
And in his hand, what could he more?
Triumphant CANNING's Picture bore)
That our three Heroes ſhould advance
And read their Comical Romance,
How rich a feaſt, what royal fare
We for our Readers might prepare!
So rich, and yet ſo ſafe a feaſt,
That no one foreign blatant beaſt,
Within the purlieus of the Law,
Should dare thereon to lay his paw,
And, growling, cry, with ſurly tone,
Keep off——this feaſt is all my own.

Bending to earth the downcaſt eye,
Or planting it againſt the ſky,
As One immers'd in deepeſt Thought,
Or with ſome holy Viſion caught,

His Hands, to aid the traitor's art,
Devoutly folded o'er his heart.
Here M*, in fraud well ſkill'd, ſhould go
All Saint, with ſolemn ſtep and ſlow.
O that RELIGION's ſacred name,
Meant to inſpire the pureſt flame,
A Proſtitute ſhould ever be
To that Arch fiend HYPOCRISY,
Where we find ev'ry other vice Crown'd with damn'd ſneaking Cowardice!
Bold Sin reclaim'd is often ſeen;
Paſt hope that Man, who dares be mean.

There, full of fleſh, and full of Grace,
With that fine round unmeaning face,
Which NATURE gives to ſons of earth,
Whom ſhe deſigns for eaſe and mirth,
Should the prim PLAUSIBLE be ſeen,
Obſerve his ſtiff affected mien;
'Gainſt NATURE, arm'd by GRAVITY,
His Features too in buckle ſee;
See with what Sanctity he reads,
With what Devotion tells his beads!

Now Prophet, ſhew me, by thine art,
What's the Religion of his heart;
Shew there, if Truth thou can'ſt unfold,
Religion center'd all in Gold,
Shew Him, nor fear Correction's rod,
As falſe to Friendſhip, as to GOD.

Horrid, unweildy, without Form,
Savage, as OCEAN in a Storm,
Of ſize prodigious, in the rear,
That Poſt of Honour, ſhould appear
POMPOSO; Fame around ſhould tell
How he a ſlave to int'reſt fell,
How, for Integrity renown'd,
Which Bookſellers have often found,
He for Subſcribers baits his hook,
And takes their caſh—but where's the Book?
No matter where—Wiſe Fear, we know,
Forbids the robbing of a Foe;
But what, to ſerve our private ends,
Forbids the cheating of our friends?
No Man alive, who would not ſwear
All's ſafe, and therefore honeſt there.

For, ſpite of all the learned ſay,
If we to Truth attention pay,
The word Diſhoneſty is meant
For nothing elſe but Puniſhment.
Fame too ſhould tell, nor heed the threat
Of Rogues, who Brother Rogues abet,
Nor tremble at the terrors hung
Aloft, to make her hold her tongue,
How to all Principles untrue,
Not fix'd to old Friends, nor to New,
He damns the Penſion which he takes,
And loves the STUART he forſakes.
NATURE (who juſtly regular
Is very ſeldom known to err,
But now and then in ſportive mood,
As ſome rude wits have underſtood,
Or through much work requir'd in haſte,
Is with a random ſtroke diſgrac'd)
POMPOSO form'd on doubtful plan,
Not quite a Beaſt, nor quite a Man,
Like—God knows what—for never yet
Could the moſt ſubtle human Wit
Find out a Monſter, which might be The Shadow of a Simile.

THESE

THESE THREE, THESE GREAT, THESE MIGHTY
Nor can the Poet's Truth agree, [THREE,
Howe'er Report hath done him wrong,
And warp'd the purpoſe of his ſong,
Amongſt the refuſe of their Race,
The Sons of Infamy to place,
That open, gen'rous, manly mind,
Which we with joy in ALDRICH find.
THESE THREE, who now are faint'ly ſhewn,
Juſt ſketch'd, and ſcarcely to be known,
If DULLMAN their Requeſt had heard,
In ſtronger Colours had appear'd,
And Friends, tho' partial, at firſt view,
Shudd'ring, had own'd the picture true.

But had their Journal been diſplay'd,
And the whole proceſs open laid,
What a vaſt unexhauſted field
For Mirth, muſt ſuch a Journal yield!
In her own anger ſtrongly charm'd,
'Gainſt hope, 'gainſt Fear by Conſcience arm'd,
Then had bold SATIRE made her way,
Knights, Lords, and Dukes, her deſtin'd prey.

But Prudence, ever ſacred name
To thoſe who feel not VIRTUE's flame,
Or only feel it at the beſt
As the dull dupe of Intereſt, Whiſper'd aloud (for this we find
A Cuſtom current with Mankind,
So loud to Whiſper, that each word
May all around be plainly heard,
And Prudence ſure would never miſs
A Cuſtom ſo contriv'd as this
Her Candour to ſecure; yet aim,
Sure Death againſt another's fame)
Knights, Lords, and Dukes—mad wretch, forl
Dangers unthought of ambuſh there;
Confine thy rage to weaker ſlaves,
Laugh at ſmall Fools, and laſh ſmall Knaves,
But never, helpleſs, mean, and poor,
Ruſh on, where Laws cannot ſecure,
Nor think thyſelf, miſtaken Youth,
Secure in Principles of Truth;
Truth! why, ſhall ev'ry wretch of Letters
Dare to ſpeak Truth againſt his Betters!
Let ragged VIRTUE ſtand aloof,
Nor mutter accents of reproof;

Let ragged WIT a Mute become,
When Wealth and Pow'r would have her dumb.
For who the Devil doth not know,
That Titles and Eſtates beſtow
An ample ſtock, where'er they fall,
Of Graces which we mental call?
Beggars, in ev'ry age and nation,
Are Rogues and Fools by Situation;
The Rich and Great are underſtood
To be of Courſe both wiſe and good.
Conſult then Int'reſt more than Pride,
Diſcreetly take the ſtronger ſide,
Deſert in Time the ſimple few,
Who Virtue's barren path purſue,
Adopt my maxims———follow Me———
To BAAL bow the prudent knee;
Deny thy God, betray thy Friend,
At BAAL's altars hourly bend,
So ſhalt Thou rich and great be ſeen;
To be Great now, You muſt be mean.

Hence, Tempter, to ſome weaker Soul,
Which Fear and Intereſt controul;

Vainly

Vainly thy precepts are addreſs'd,
Where VIRTUE ſteels the ſteady breaſt.
Thro' Meanneſs wade to boaſted pow'r,
Through Guilt repeated ev'ry hour;
What is thy Gain, when all is done,
What mighty laurels haſt Thou won?
Dull Crowds, to whom the heart's unknown,
Praiſe Thee for Virtues not thy own;
But will, at once Man's ſcourge and friend,
Impartial CONSCIENCE too commend?
From her Reproaches can'ſt thou fly?
Can'ſt Thou with worlds her ſilence buy?
Believe it not—her ſtings ſhall find
A Paſſage to thy Coward Mind.
There ſhall ſhe fix her ſharpeſt dart,
There ſhew Thee truly, as Thou art,
Unknown to thoſe, by whom Thou'rt priz'd;
Known to thyſelf to be deſpis'd.

The Man, who weds the ſacred MUSE,
Diſdains all mercenary views,
And He, who VIRTUE's throne would rear,
Laughs at the Phantoms rais'd by Fear.

Tho' Folly, rob'd in Purple, ſhines,
Tho' Vice exhauſts Peruvian mines,
Yet ſhall they tremble, and turn pale,
When SATIRE wields her mighty Flail;
Or ſhould They, of rebuke afraid,
With MELCOMBE ſeek Hell's deepeſt ſhade,
SATIRE, ſtill mindful of her aim,
Shall bring the Cowards back to Shame.

Hated by many, lov'd by few,
Above each little private view,
Honeſt, tho' poor, (and who ſhall dare
To diſappoint my boaſting there?)
Hardy and reſolute, tho' weak,
The dictates of my heart to ſpeak,
Willing I bend at SATIRE's Throne;
What Pow'r I have, be all her own.

Nor ſhall yon Lawyer's ſpecious art,
Conſcious of a corrupted heart,
Create imaginary Fear
To damp us in our bold Career.
Why ſhould we Fear; and what? the Laws?
They all are arm'd in VIRTUE's cauſe.

And

And aiming at the ſelf-ſame end,
SATIRE is always VIRTUE's Friend,
Nor ſhall that Muſe, whoſe honeſt rage,
In a corrupt degen'rate age,
(When, dead to ev'ry nicer ſenſe,
Deep ſunk in Vice and Indolence,
The SPIRIT of old ROME was broke Beneath the Tyrant Fidler's yoke)
Baniſh'd the Roſe from Nero's cheek;
Under a BRUNSWICK fear to ſpeak.

Drawn by Conceit from REASON's plan,
How vain is that poor Creature, MAN!
How pleas'd is ev'ry paultry elf
To prate about that thing himſelf!
After my Promiſe made in Rime,
And meant in earneſt at that time,
To jog, according to the Mode,
In one dull pace, in one dull road,
What but that Curſe of Heart and Head
To this digreſſion could have led,
Where plung'd, in vain I look about,
And can't ſtay in, nor well get out.

Could I, whilſt Humour held the Quill,
Could I digreſs with half that ſkill,
Could I with half that ſkill return,
Which we ſo much admire in STERNE,
Where each Digreſſion, ſeeming vain,
And only fit to entertain,
Is found, on better recollection,
To have a juſt and nice Connection,
To help the whole with wond'rous art,
Whence it ſeems idly to depart;
Then ſhould our readers ne'er accuſe
Theſe wild excurſions of the Muſe,
Ne'er backward turn dull Pages o'er
To recollect what went before;
Deeply impreſs'd, and ever new,
Each Image paſt ſhould ſtart to view,
And We to DULLMAN now come in,
As if we ne'er had abſent been.

Have you not ſeen, when danger's near,
The coward cheek turn white with fear?
Have you not ſeen, when danger's fled,
The ſelf-ſame cheek with joy turn red?

Theſe are low ſymptoms which we find
Fit only for a vulgar mind,
Where honeſt features, void of art,
Betray the feelings of the heart;
Our DULLMAN with a face was bleſs'd
Where no one paſſion was expreſs'd,
His eye, in a fine ſtupor caught,
Imply'd a plenteous lack of thought:
Nor was one line that whole face ſeen in,
Which could be juſtly charg'd with meaning.

To AVARICE by birth ally'd,
Debauch'd by Marriage into Pride,
In age grown fond of youthful ſports,
Of Pomps, of Vanities, and Courts,
And by ſucceſs too mighty made,
To love his Country or his Trade,
Stiff in opinion (no rare caſe
With Blockheads in, or out of Place)
Too weak, and inſolent of Soul,
To ſuffer Reaſon's juſt controul,
But bending, of his own accord,
To that trim tranſient toy, MY LORD;

The dupe of SCOTS (a fatal race,
Whom GOD in wrath contriv'd to place,
To ſcourge our crimes, and gall our pride,
A conſtant thorn in ENGLAND's ſide,
Whom firſt, our greatneſs to oppoſe,
He in his vengeance mark'd for foes;
Then, more to ſerve his wrathful ends,
And more to curſe us, mark'd for Friends)
Deep in the ſtate, if we give credit
To Him, for no one elſe e'er ſaid it,
Sworn friend of great Ones not a few,
Tho' he their Titles only knew,
And thoſe (which envious of his breeding Book-worms have charg'd to want of reading)
Merely to ſhew himſelf polite
He never would pronounce aright;
An Orator with whom a hoſt
Of thoſe which ROME and ATHENS boaſt,
In all their Pride might not contend,
Who, with no Pow'rs to recommend,
Whilſt JACKEY HUME, and BILLY WHITEHEAD,
And DICKEY GLOVER ſat delighted,
Could ſpeak whole days in Nature's ſpite,
Juſt as thoſe able Verſe-men write,

Great

Great DULLMAN from his bed aroſe—
Thrice did he ſpit—thrice wip'd his noſe—
Thrice ſtrove to ſmile—thrice ſtrove to frown—
And thrice look'd up—and thrice look'd down—
Then Silence broke—CRAPE, who am I?
CRAPE bow'd, and ſmil'd an arch reply,
Am I not CRAPE? I am, you know,
Above all thoſe who are below.
Have I not knowledge? and for Wit,
Money will always purchaſe it,
Nor, if it needful ſhould be found,
Will I grudge ten, or twenty Pound,
For which the whole ſtock may be bought
Of ſcoundrel wits not worth a Groat.
But leſt I ſhould proceed too far,
I'll feel my Friend the Miniſter,
(Great Men, CRAPE, muſt not be neglected)
How he in this point is affected,
For, as I ſtand a magiſtrate,
To ſerve him firſt, and next the State,
Perhaps he may not think it fit
To let his magiſtrates have wit.

Boaſt I not, at this very hour,
Thoſe large effects which troop with pow'r?
Am I not mighty in the land?
Do not I ſit, whilſt others ſtand?
Am I not with rich garments grac'd,
In ſeat of honour always plac'd?
And do not Cits of chief degree,
Tho' proud to others, bend to me?

Have I not, as a JUSTICE ought,
The laws ſuch wholeſome rigour taught,
That Fornication, in diſgrace,
Is now afraid to ſhew her face,
And not one Whore theſe walls approaches
Unleſs they ride in our own coaches?
And ſhall this FAME, an old poor Strumpet,
Without our Licence ſound her Trumpet,
And, envious of our City's quiet,
In broad Day-light blow up a Riot?
If inſolence like this we bear,
Where is our State? our office where?
Farewell all honours of our reign,
Farewell the Neck ennobling CHAIN,

Freedom's known badge o'er all the globe,
Farewell the ſolemn-ſpreading ROBE,
Farewell the SWORD,—farewell the MACE,
Farewell all TITLE, POMP, and PLACE.
Remov'd from Men of high degree,
(A loſs to them, CRAPE, not to Me)
Baniſh'd to CHIPPENHAM, or to FROME,
DULLMAN once more ſhall ply the Loom.

CRAPE, lifting up his hands and eyes,
DULLMAN—the Loom—at CHIPPENHAM—cries
If there be Pow'rs which greatneſs love,
Which rule below, but dwell above,
Thoſe Pow'rs united all ſhall join
To contradict the raſh deſign.

Sooner ſhall ſtubborn WILL lay down
His oppoſition with his Gown,
Sooner ſhall TEMPLE leave the road
Which leads to VIRTUE's mean abode,
Sooner ſhall SCOTS this Country quit,
And ENGLAND's Foes be Friends to PITT,
Than DULLMAN, from his grandeur thrown,
Shall wander out-caſt, and unknown.

Sure as that Cane (a Cane there ſtood
Near to a Table, made of Wood,
Of dry fine Wood a table made,
By ſome rare artiſt in the trade,
Who had enjoy'd immortal praiſe
If he had liv'd in HOMER's days.)
Sure as that Cane, which once was ſeen
In pride of life all freſh and green,
The banks of INDUS to adorn;
Then, of its leafy honours ſhorn,
According to exacteſt rule,
Was faſhion'd by the workman's tool;
And which at preſent we behold
Curiouſly poliſh'd, crown'd with gold,
With gold well-wrought; ſure as that Cane,
Shall never on its native plain
Strike root afreſh, ſhall never more
Flouriſh in Tawny INDIA's ſhore,
So ſure ſhall DULLMAN and his race
To lateſt times this ſtation grace.

DULLMAN, who all this while had kept
His eye-lids clos'd as if He ſlept,

Now looking ſteadfaſtly on CRAPE,
As at ſome God in human ſhape—
CRAPE, I proteſt, you ſeem to me
To have diſcharg'd a Prophecy;
Yes—from the firſt it doth appear
Planted by FATE, the DULLMANS here
Have always held a quiet reign,
And here ſhall to the laſt remain.

CRAPE, they're all wrong about this Ghoſt—
Quite on the wrong ſide of the Poſt—
Blockheads to take it in their head
To be a meſſage from the dead,
For that by Miſſion they deſign,
A word not half ſo good as mine.
CRAPE—here it is—ſtart not one doubt—
A Plot—a Plot—I've found it out.

O God!—cries CRAPE,—how bleſt the nation,
Where one Son boaſts ſuch penetration!

CRAPE, I've not time to tell you now
When I diſcover'd this, or how;

To

To STENTOR go—if he's not there,
His place let Bully NORTON bear—
Our Citizens to Council to call—
Let All meet—'tis the cauſe of All.
Let the three Witneſſes attend
With Allegations to befriend,
To ſwear juſt ſo much, and no more,
As We inſtruct them in before.

Stay—CRAPE—come back—what, don't you ſee
Th' effects of this diſcovery?
DULLMAN all care and toil endures—
The Profit, CRAPE, will all be Yours.
A Mitre (for, this arduous taſk Perform'd, they'll grant whate'er I aſk)
A Mitre (and perhaps the beſt)
Shall thro' my Intereſt make thee bleſt.
And at this time, when gracious FATE
Dooms to the Scot the reigns of State,
Who is more fit (and for your uſe
We could ſome inſtances produce)
Of ENGLAND's Church to be the Head,
Than You, a Preſbyterian bred?

But when thus mighty you are made,
Unlike the Brethren of thy trade,
Be grateful, CRAPE, and let Me not,
Like Old NEWCASTLE, be forgot.

But an Affair, CRAPE, of this ſize
Will aſk from Conduct vaſt ſupplies;
It muſt not, as the Vulgar ſay,
Be done in Hugger Mugger way.
Traitors indeed (and that's diſcreet)
Who hatch the Plot, in private meet;
They ſhould in Public go, no doubt,
Whoſe buſineſs is to find it out.

To-morrow—if the day appear
Likely to turn out fair and clear—
Proclaim a Grand Proceſſionade—
Be all the City Pomp diſplay'd,
Let the Train-bands—CRAPE ſhook his head
They heard the Trumpet and were fled—
Well—cries the Knight—if that's the caſe,
My Servants ſhall ſupply their place—
My Servants—mine alone—no more
Than what my Servants did before—

Doſt not remember, CRAPE, that day,
When, DULLMAN's grandeur to diſplay,
As all too ſimple, and too low,
Our City Friends were thruſt below,
Whilſt, as more worthy of our Love,
Courtiers were entertain'd above?
Tell me, who waited then? and how?
My Servants—mine—and why not now?
In haſte then, CRAPE, to STENTOR go—
But ſend up HART who waits below,
With him, 'till You return again
(Reach me my Spectacles and Cane)
I'll make a proof how I advance in My new accompliſhment of dancing.

Not quite ſo faſt as Lightning flies,
Wing'd with red anger, thro' the ſkies;
Not quite ſo faſt as, ſent by JOVE,
IRIS deſcends on wings of Love;
Not quite ſo faſt as TERROR rides
When He the chafing winds beſtrides;
CRAPE Hobbled—but his mind was good—
Cou'd he go faſter than He cou'd?

Near to that Tow'r, which, as we're told,
The mighty JULIUS rais'd of old,
Where to the block by Juſtice led,
The Rebel SCOT hath often bled,
Where Arms are kept ſo clean, ſo bright,
'Twere Sin they ſhould be ſoil'd in fight,
Where Brutes of foreign race are ſhewn
By Brutes much greater of our own,
Faſt by the crouded Thames, is found
An ample ſquare of ſacred ground,
Where artleſs Eloquence preſides,
And Nature ev'ry ſentence guides.

Here Female Parliaments debate
About Religion, Trade, and State,
Here ev'ry NAIAD's Patriot ſoul,
Diſdaining Foreign baſe controul,
Deſpiſing French, deſpiſing Erſe,
Pours forth the plain Old Engliſh Curſe,
And bears aloft, with terrors hung,
The Honours of the Vulgar Tongue.

Here STENTOR, always heard with awe,
In thund'ring accents deals out Law.

Twelve Furlongs off each dreadful word
Was plainly and diſtinctly heard,
And ev'ry neighbour hill around
Return'd and ſwell'd the mighty ſound.
The loudeſt Virgin of the ſtream,
Compar'd with him, would ſilent ſeem;
THAMES (who, enrag'd to find his courſe
Oppos'd, rolls down with double force,
Againſt the Bridge indignant roars,
And laſhes the reſounding ſhores)
Compar'd with him, at loweſt Tide,
In ſofteſt whiſpers ſeems to glide.

Hither directed by the noiſe,
Swell'd with the hope of future joys,
Thro' too much zeal and haſte made lame,
The Rev'rend ſlave of DULLMAN came.

STENTOR—with ſuch a ſerious air,
With ſuch a face of ſolemn care,
As might import him to contain
A Nation's welfare in his brain—
STENTOR—cries CRAPE—I'm hither ſent
On buſineſs of moſt high intent,

Great

Great DULLMAN's orders to convey;
DULLMAN commands, and I obey.
Big with thoſe throes which Patriots feel,
And lab'ring for the common weal,
Some ſecret which forbids him reſt,
Tumbles and Toſſes in his breaſt,
Tumbles and Toſſes to get free;
And thus the Chief commands by Me.

To-morrow if the Day appear
Likely to turn out fair and clear—
Proclaim a Grand Proceſſionade—
Be all the City Pomp diſplay'd—
Our Citizens to Council call—
Let All meet—'tis the Cauſe of All.

BOOK IV.

COXCOMBS, who vainly make pretence
To ſomething of exalted ſenſe

Which, merely to the eye confin'd,
Bring no improvement to the mind,

For millions to a Puppet-Show,

Without one play'r to ſecond it,
They muſt, obeying Folly's call,

For wretchedneſs, and would be thou

For his own happineſs to be,

And, by long trains of conſequences
Enſur'd, gives Sanction to the Senſes;
Who would not, Heav'n forbid it! w

With theſe grave Fops, whoſe ſyſtem ſeems
To give up Certainty for dreams,
The Eye of Man is underſtood
As for no other purpoſe good
Than as a door, thro' which of courſe
Their paſſage crouding objects force,
A downright Uſher, to admit
New-Comers to the Court of Wit.
(Good GRAVITY, forbear thy ſpleen
When I ſay Wit, I Wiſdom mean.)
Where (ſuch the practice of the Court, Which legal Precedents ſupport)
Not one Idea is allow'd
To paſs unqueſtion'd in the crowd,
But e're It can obtain the grace
Of holding in the brain a place,
Before the Chief in Congregation
Muſt ſtand a ſtrict Examination.

Not ſuch as Theſe, who PHYSIC twirl,
Full fraught with death, from ev'ry curl,
Who prove, with all becoming State,
Their voice to be the voice of Fate,

Prepar'd

Not ſuch as in that ſolemn ſeat,
Where the nine Ladies hold retreat,
The Ladies nine, who, as we're told,
Scorning thoſe haunts they lov'd of old,
The banks of ISIS now prefer,
Nor will one hour from OXFORD ſtir,
Are held for form; which BALAAM's Aſs
As well as BALAAM's ſelf might paſs,
And with his Maſter take degrees,
Could he contrive to pay the Fees.

Men of ſound parts, who, deeply read,
O'erload the Storehouſe of the head
With furniture they ne'er can uſe,
Cannot forgive our rambling Muſe
This wild excurſion; cannot ſee
Why Phyſic and Divinity,
To the ſurprize of all beholders,
Are lugg'd in by the head and ſhoulders;
Or how, in any point of view,
OXFORD hath any thing to do;
But Men of nice and ſubtle Learning,
Remarkable for quick diſcerning,

Thro' Spectacles of critic mould,
Without inſtruction, will behold
That We a Method here have got,
To ſhew What is, by What is not;
And that our drift (Parentheſis
For once apart) is briefly this.

Within the brain's moſt ſecret cells,
A certain Lord Chief Juſtice dwells
Of ſov'reign pow'r, whom One and All,
With common Voice, We REASON call;
Tho', for the purpoſes of Satire,
A name in Truth is no great Matter,
JEFFERIES or MANSFIELD, which You will,
It means a Lord Chief Juſtice ſtill.
Here, ſo our great Projectors ſay,
The Senſes all muſt homage pay,
Hither They all muſt tribute bring,
And proſtrate fall before their King.
Whatever unto them is brought,
Is carry'd on the wings of Thought
Before his throne, where, in full ſtate,
He on their merits holds debate,

Examines, Croſs-examines, Weighs
Their right to cenſure or to praiſe;
Nor doth his equal voice depend
On narrow Views of foe and friend,
Nor can or flattery or force
Divert him from his ſteady courſe;
The Channel of Enquiry's clear,
No ſham Examination's here.

He, upright Juſticer, no doubt,
Ad libitum puts in and out,
Adjuſts and ſettles in a trice
What Virtue is, and What is Vice,
What is Perfection, what Defect,
What we muſt chuſe, and what reject;
He takes upon him to explain
What Pleaſure is, and what is Pain,
Whilſt We, obedient to the Whim,
And reſting all our faith on him,
True Members of the Stoic weal,
Muſt learn to think, and ceaſe to feel.

This glorious Syſtem form'd, for Man
To practiſe when and how he can,

If the five Senſes in alliance
To Reaſon hurl a proud defiance,
And, tho' oft conquer'd, yet unbroke,
Endeavour to throw off that yoke,
Which they a greater ſlav'ry hold,
Than Jewiſh Bondage was of old;
Or if They, ſomething touch'd with ſhame,
Allow him to retain the name
Of Royalty, and, as in Sport,
To hold a mimic formal Court;
Permitted, no uncommon thing,
To be a kind of Puppet King,
And ſuffer'd by the way of toy,
To hold a globe, but not employ;
Our Syſtem-mongers, ſtruck with fear,
Prognoſticate deſtruction near;
All things to Anarchy muſt run;
The little World of Man's undone.

Nay ſhould the Eye, that niceſt Senſe,
Neglect to ſend intelligence
Unto the Brain, diſtinct and clear,
Of all that paſſes in her ſphere,

Should She preſumptuous joy receive,
Without the Underſtanding's leave,
They deem it rank and daring Treaſon
Againſt the Monarchy of REASON,
Not thinking, tho' they're wondrous wiſe,
That few have Reaſon, moſt have Eyes;
So that the Pleaſures of the Mind
To a ſmall circle are confin'd,
Whilſt thoſe which to the Senſes fall,
Become the Property of All.
Beſides (and this is ſure a Caſe
Not much at preſent out of place)
Where NATURE Reaſon doth deny,
No Art can that defect ſupply,
But if (for it is our intent Fairly to ſtate the argument)
A Man ſhould want an eye or two,
The Remedy is ſure, tho' new;
The Cure's at hand—no need of Fear—
For proof—behold the CHEVALIER—
As well prepar'd, beyond all doubt,
To put Eyes in, as put them out.

But,

But, Argument apart, which tends
T' embitter foes and ſep'rate friends, (Nor, turn'd apoſtate for the Nine,
Would I, tho' bred up a Divine,
And foe of courſe to Reaſon's weal,
Widen that breach I cannot heal)
By his own Senſe and Feelings taught,
In ſpeech as lib'ral as in thought,
Let ev'ry Man enjoy his whim;
What's He to Me, or I to him?
Might I, tho' never rob'd in Ermine,
A matter of this weight determine,
No Penalties ſhould ſettled be
To force men to Hypocriſy,
To make them ape an aukward zeal,
And, feeling not, pretend to feel.
I would not have, might ſentence reſt
Finally fix'd within my breaſt,
E'en ANNET cenſur'd and confin'd,
Becauſe we're of a diff'rent mind.

NATURE, who in her act moſt free,
Herſelf delights in Liberty,

Profuſe in Love, and, without bound,
Pours joy on ev'ry creature round;
Whom yet, was ev'ry bounty ſhed
In double Portions on our head,
We could not truly bounteous call,
If FREEDOM did not crown them all.

By Providence forbid to ſtray,
Brutes never can miſtake their way,
Determin'd ſtill, they plod along
By Inſtinct, neither right nor wrong;
But Man, had he the heart to uſe
His Freedom, hath a right to chuſe,
Whether he acts or well, or ill,
Depends entirely on his will;
To her laſt work, her fav'rite Man,
Is giv'n on NATURE's better plan
A Privilege in pow'r to err,
Nor let this phraſe reſentment ſtir
Amongſt the grave ones, ſince indeed,
The little merit Man can plead
In doing well, dependeth ſtill
Upon his pow'r of doing ill.

Opinions ſhould be free as air;
No man, whate'er his rank, whate'er
His Qualities, a claim can found
That my Opinion muſt be bound,
And ſquare with his; ſuch ſlaviſh chains
From foes the lib'ral ſoul diſdains,
Nor can, tho' true to friendſhip, bend
To wear them even from a friend.
Let Thoſe, who rigid Judgment own,
Submiſſive bow at Judgment's throne,
And if They of no value hold
Pleaſure, till Pleaſure is grown cold,
Pall'd and inſipid, forc'd to wait
For Judgment's regular debate,
To give it warrant, let them find
Dull Subjects ſuited to their mind;
Their's be ſlow Wiſdom; Be my plan
To live as merry as I can,
Regardleſs as the faſhions go,
Whether there's Reaſon for't, or no;
Be my employment here on earth
To give a lib'ral ſcope to mirth,
Life's barren vale with flow'rs t' adorn,
And pluck a roſe from ev'ry thorn.

... could I ne'er endu
Who found diſeaſe, and not a cu
Nor can I hold that man a friend
Whoſe zeal a helping hand ſhall l
To open happy Folly's eyes,
And, making wretched, make me
For next, a Truth which can't adı
Reproof from Wiſdom or from W
To being happy here below,
Is to believe that we are ſo.

Some few in knowledge find relief,
I place my comfort in belief.
Some for Reality may call,
FANCY to me is All in All.
Imagination, thro' th...

This am I ſure, whate'er our view,
Whatever ſhadows we purſue,
For our purſuits, be what they will,
Are little more than ſhadows ſtill,
Too ſwift they fly, too ſwift and ſtrong,
For man to catch, or hold them long.
But Joys which in the FANCY live,
Each moment to each man may give.
True to himſelf, and true to eaſe,
He ſoftens Fate's ſevere decrees,
And (can a Mortal wiſh for more?)
Creates, and makes himſelf new o'er,
Mocks boaſted vain Reality,
And Is, whate'er he wants to Be.

Hail, FANCY—to thy pow'r I owe
Deliv'rance from the gripe of Woe,
To Thee I owe a mighty debt,
Which Gratitude ſhall ne'er forget,
Whilſt Mem'ry can her force employ,
A large encreaſe of ev'ry joy.
When at my doors, too ſtrongly barr'd,
Authority had plac'd a guard,

A knaviſh guard, ordain'd by Law
To keep poor Honeſty in awe;
Authority, ſevere and ſtern,
To intercept my wiſh'd return;
When Foes grew proud, and Friends grew cool,
And Laughter ſeiz'd each ſober fool;
When Candour ſtarted in amaze,
And, meaning cenſure, hinted praiſe;
When Prudence, lifting up her eyes
And hands, thank'd Heav'n, that ſhe was wiſe;
When All around Me, with an air
Of hopeleſs Sorrow, look'd Deſpair,
When They or ſaid, or ſeem'd to ſay,
There is but one, one only way
Better, and be advis'd by us,
Not be at all, than to be thus;
When Virtue ſhunn'd the ſhock, and Pride
Diſabled, lay by Virtue's ſide,
Too weak my ruffled ſoul to chear,
Which could not hope, yet would not fear;
Health in her motion, the wild grace
Of Pleaſure ſpeaking in her face,
Dull Regularity thrown by,
And Comfort beaming from her eye,

FANCY, in richeſt robes array'd,
Came ſmiling forth, and brought me aid,
Came ſmiling o'er that dreadful time,
And, more to bleſs me, came in Rime.

Nor is her Pow'r to Me confin'd,
It ſpreads, It comprehends Mankind.

When (to the Spirit-ſtirring ſound
Of Trumpets breathing Courage round,
And Fifes, well mingled to reſtrain,
And bring that Courage down again,
Or to the melancholy knell
Of the dull, deep, and doleful bell,
Such as of late the good Saint Bride
Muffled, to mortify the pride
Of thoſe, who, ENGLAND quite forgot,
Paid their vile homage to the SCOT,
Where ASGILL held the foremoſt place,
Whilſt my Lord figur'd at a race) Proceſſions ('tis not worth debate Whether They are of Stage or State)
Move on, ſo very very ſlow,
'Tis doubtful if they move or no;

When

When the Performers all the while Mechanically frown or ſmile,
Or, with a dull and ſtupid ſtare,
A vacancy of Senſe declare,
Or, with down-bending eye, ſeem wrought
Into a Labyrinth of Thought,
Where Reaſon wanders ſtill in doubt,
And, once got in, cannot get out;
What cauſe ſufficient can we find
To ſatisfy a thinking mind,
Why, dup'd by ſuch vain farces, Man
Deſcends to act on ſuch a plan?
Why They, who hold themſelves divine,
Can in ſuch wretched follies join,
Strutting like Peacocks, or like Crows,
Themſelves and Nature to expoſe?
What Cauſe, but that (you'll underſtand
We have our Remedy at hand,
That if perchance we ſtart a doubt,
Ere it is fix'd, we wipe it out,
As Surgeons, when they lop a limb,
Whether for Profit, Fame, or Whim,
Or mere experiment to try,
Muſt always have a Styptic by)

FANCY ſteps in, and ſtamps that real,
Which, ipſo facto, is Ideal.

Can none remember, yes, I know,
All muſt remember that rare ſhow,
When to the Country SENSE went down,
And Fools came flocking up to Town,
When Knights (a work which all admit
To be for Knighthood much unfit)
Built booths for hire; when Parſons play'd,
In robes Canonical array'd,
And, Fiddling, join'd the Smithfield dance,
The price of Tickets to advance;
Or, unto Tapſters turn'd, dealt out,
Running from Booth to Booth about,
To ev'ry Scoundrel, by retail,
True pennyworths of Beef and Ale,
Then firſt prepar'd, by bringing beer in,
For preſent grand Electioneering;
When Heralds, running all about
To bring in Order, turn'd it Out;
When, by the prudent Marſhal's care,
Leſt the rude populace ſhould ſtare,

And

And with unhallow'd eyes profane
Gay Puppets of Patrician ſtrain,
The whole Proceſſion, as in ſpite,
Unheard, unſeen, ſtole off by Night;
When our Lov'd Monarch, nothing loth,
Solemnly took that ſacred oath,
Whence mutual firm agreements ſpring
Betwixt the Subject and the King,
By which, in uſual manner crown'd,
His Head, his Heart, his Hands he bound,
Againſt himſelf, ſhould Paſſion ſtir
The leaſt Propenſity to err,
Againſt all Slaves, who might prepare
Or open force, or hidden ſnare,
That glorious CHARTER to maintain,
By which We ſerve, and He muſt reign;
Then FANCY, with unbounded ſway,
Revell'd ſole Miſtreſs of the day,
And wrought ſuch wonders, as might make Egyptian Sorcerers forſake
Their baffled mockeries, and own
The Palm of Magic Her's alone.

A KNIGHT (who in the ſilken lap
Of lazy Peace, had liv'd on Pap,
Who never yet had dar'd to roam
'Bove ten or twenty miles from home,
Nor even that, unleſs a Guide
Was plac'd to amble by his ſide,
And troops of Slaves were ſpread around
To keep his Honour ſafe and ſound,
Who could not ſuffer for his life
A Point to ſword, or Edge to knife,
And always fainted at the ſight
Of Blood, tho' 'twas not ſhed in fight,
Who diſinherited one Son.
For firing off an Elder Gun,
And whipt another, ſix years old,
Becauſe the Boy, preſumptuous, bold
To Madneſs, likely to become A very Swiſs, had beat a drum,
Tho' it appear'd an inſtrument
Moſt peaceable and innocent,
Having from firſt been in the hands
And ſervice of the City Bands)
Grac'd with thoſe enſigns, which were meant
To further Honour's dread intent,

The Minds of Warriors to inflame,
And ſpur them on to deeds of Fame,
With little Sword, large Spurs, high Feather,
Fearful of ev'ry thing but Weather,
(And all muſt own, who pay regard
To Charity, it had been hard
That in his very firſt Campaign
His Honours ſhould be ſoil'd with rain)
A Hero all at once became,
And (ſeeing others much the ſame
In point of Valour as himſelf,
Who leave their Courage on a ſhelf
From Year to Year, till ſome ſuch rout
In proper ſeaſon calls it out)
Strutted, look'd big, and ſwagger'd more
Than ever Hero did before,
Look'd up, Look'd down, Look'd all around,
Like MAVORS, grimly ſmil'd and frown'd,
Seem'd Heav'n, and Earth, and Hell to call
To fight, that he might rout them all,
And perſonated Valour's ſtile
So long, Spectators to beguile,
That paſſing ſtrange, and wondrous true,
Himſelf at laſt believ'd it too,

Nor

Nor for a time could he diſcern,
Till Truth and Darkneſs took their turn,
So well did FANCY play her part,
That Coward ſtill was at the heart.

WHIFFLE (who knows not WHIFFLE's name,
By the impartial voice of fame
Recorded firſt, thro' all this land,
In Vanity's illuſtrious band?)
Who, by all bounteous Nature meant
For offices of hardiment,
A modern HERCULES at leaſt,
To rid the world of each wild beaſt,
Of each wild beaſt which came in view,
Whether on four legs or on two,
Degenerate, delights to prove
His force on the Parade of Love,
Diſclaims the joys which camps afford,
And for the Diſtaff quits the ſword;
Who fond of women would appear
To public eye, and public ear,
But, when in private, let's them know
How little they can truſt to ſhow;

Who ſports a Woman, as of courſe,
Juſt as a Jockey ſhews a horſe,
And then returns her to the ſtable,
Or vainly plants her at his table,
Where he would rather VENUS find,
(So pall'd, and ſo deprav'd his mind)
Than, by ſome great occaſion led,
To ſeize Her panting in her bed,
Burning with more than mortal fires,
And melting in her own deſires;
Who, ripe in years, is yet a child,
Thro' faſhion, not thro' feeling wild;
Whate'er in others, who proceed
As Senſe and Nature have decreed,
From real paſſion flows, in him
Is mere effect of mode and whim;
Who Laughs, a very common way,
Becauſe he nothing has to ſay,
As your choice SPIRITS oaths diſpenſe
To fill up vacancies of Senſe;
Who, having ſome ſmall Senſe, denies it,
Or, uſing, always miſapplies it;
Who now and then brings ſomething forth,
Which ſeems indeed of Sterling Worth,

Something,

Something, by ſudden Start and Fit,
Which at a diſtance looks like wit,
But, on Examination near,
To his confuſion will appear
By Truth's fair glaſs, to be at beſt
A Threadbare Jeſter's threadbare jeſt;
Who friſks and dances thro' the ſtreet,
Sings without voice, rides without ſeat,
Plays o'er his tricks, like Æsop's Aſs,
A gratis fool to all who paſs;
Who riots, tho' he loves not waſte,
Whores without luſt, drinks without taſte,
Acts without ſenſe, talks without thought,
Does every thing but what he ought;
Who, led by forms, without the pow'r
Of Vice, is Vicious; who one hour,
Proud without Pride, the next will be Humble without Humility;
Whoſe Vanity we all diſcern,
The Spring on which his actions turn;
Whoſe aim in erring, is to err,
So that he may be ſingular,
And all his utmoſt wiſhes mean,
Is, tho' he's laugh'd at, to be ſeen,

Such (for when FLATT'RY's ſoothing ſtrain
Had robb'd the Muſe of her diſdain,
And found a method to perſuade
Her art, to ſoften ev'ry ſhade,
JUSTICE enrag'd, the pencil ſnatch'd
From her degen'rate hand, and ſcratch'd
Out ev'ry trace; then, quick as thought,
From life this ſtriking likeneſs caught)
In Mind, in Manners, and in Mien,
Such WHIFFLE came, and ſuch was ſeen
In the World's eye, but (ſtrange to tell!)
Miſled by FANCY's magic ſpell,
Deceiv'd, not dreaming of deceit,
Cheated, but happy in the cheat,
Was more than human in his own.
O bow, bow All at FANCY's throne,
Whoſe Pow'r could make ſo vile an Elf,
With Patience bear that thing, himſelf.

But, Miſtreſs of each art to pleaſe,
Creative FANCY, what are theſe,
Theſe Pageants of a trifler's Pen,
To what thy Pow'r effected then?

Familiar with the human mind,
As ſwift and ſubtle as the wind,
Which we all feel, yet no one knows
Or whence it comes, or where it goes,
FANCY at once in ev'ry part
Poſſeſs'd the Eye, the Head, the Heart,
And in a thouſand forms array'd,
A thouſand various gambols play'd.

Here, in a Face which well might aſk
The Privilege to wear a maſk

Like Centinels i' th' ſtarry way,
Who wait for the return of day,
Almoſt burnt out, and ſeem to keep Their watch, like Soldiers, in their ſleep,
Or like thoſe lamps which, by the pow'r
Of Law, muſt burn from hour to hour,

Under the terrors of that Hall,

To keep their dying light alive

Deliver'd from the hand of GREEN,
Started, in regular array,
Like Train-Bands on a grand Field-day,
Into the Gums, which would have fled,
But, wond'ring, turn'd from white to red,
Quite alter'd was the whole machine,
And Lady ——— ——— was fifteen.

Here She made lordly temples riſe
Before the pious DASHWOOD's eyes,
Temples which built aloft in air,
May ſerve for ſhow, if not for pray'r;
In ſolemn form Herſelf, before,
Array'd like Faith, the Bible bore.
There, over MELCOMB's feather'd head,
Who, quite a man of Gingerbread,
Savour'd in talk, in dreſs, and phyz,
More of another World than this,
To a dwarf Muſe a Giant Page,
The laſt grave Fop of the laſt Age,
In a ſuperb and feather'd hearſe,
Beſcutcheon'd and betagg'd with Verſe,

Which, to Beholders from afar,
Appear'd like a triumphal Car,
She rode, in a caſt Rainbow clad;
There, throwing off the hallow'd plaid,
Naked, as when (in thoſe drear Cells Where, Self-bleſs'd, Self-curs'd MADNESS dwells)
PLEASURE, on whom, in Laughter's ſhape,
FRENZY had perfected a rape,
Firſt brought her forth, before her time,
Wild Witneſs of her ſhame and crime,
Driving before an Idol band
Of driv'ling STUARTS, hand in hand,
Some, who to curſe Mankind, had Wore
A Crown they ne'er muſt think of more,
Others, whoſe baby brows were grac'd
With Paper Crowns, and Toys of Paſte,
She Jigg'd, and playing on the Flute
Spread raptures o'er the ſoul of BUTE.

Big with vaſt hopes, ſome mighty plan,
Which wrought the buſy ſoul of man
To her full bent, the CIVIL LAW,
Fit Code to keep a world in awe,

Bound o'er his brows, fair to behold,
As Jewiſh Frontlets were of old,
The famous CHARTER of our land,
Defac'd, and mangled in his hand;
As one whom deepeſt thoughts employ,
But deepeſt thoughts of trueſt joy,
Serious and ſlow he ſtrode, he ſtalk'd,
Before him troops of Heroes walk'd,
Whom beſt He lov'd, of Heroes crown'd,
By TORIES guarded all around,
Dull ſolemn pleaſure in his face,
He ſaw the honours of his race,
He ſaw their lineal glories riſe,
And touch'd, or ſeem'd to touch the ſkies.
Not the moſt diſtant mark of fear,
No ſign of axe, or ſcaffold near,
Not one curs'd thought, to croſs his will,
Of ſuch a place as Tower Hill.

Curſe on this Muſe, a flippant Jade,
A Shrew, like ev'ry other Maid
Who turns the corner of nineteen,
Devour'd with peeviſhneſs and ſpleen.

Her

Her Tongue (for as, when bound for life,
The Huſband ſuffers for the Wife,
So if in any works of rime
Perchance there blunders out a crime,
Poor Culprit Bards muſt always rue it,
Altho' 'tis plain the Muſes do it)
Sooner or later cannot fail
To ſend me headlong to a jail.
Whate'er my theme (our themes we chuſe
In modern days without a Muſe,
Juſt as a Father will provide
To join a Bridegroom and a Bride,
As if, tho' they muſt be the Play'rs,
The game was wholly his, not theirs)
Whate'er my theme, the Muſe, who ſtill
Owns no direction but her will,
Flies off, and, ere I could expect,
By ways oblique and indirect,
At once quite over head and ears,
In fatal Politics appears.
Time was, and, if I ought diſcern
Of fate, that Time ſhall ſoon return,
When decent and demure at leaſt,
As grave and dull as any Prieſt,

I could

I could ſee Vice in robes array'd,
Could ſee the game of Folly play'd
Succeſsfully in Fortune's ſchool,
Without exclaiming rogue or fool;
Time was, when nothing loth or proud,
I lacquied, with the fawning crowd,
Scoundrels in Office, and would bow
To Cyphers great in place; but now
Upright I ſtand, as if wiſe Fate,
To compliment a ſhatter'd ſtate,
Had me, like ATLAS, hither ſent
To ſhoulder up the firmament,
And if I ſtoop'd, with gen'ral crack
The Heavens would tumble from my back;
Time was, when rank and ſituation
Secur'd the great Ones of the Nation
From all controul; Satire and Law
Kept only little Knaves in awe,
But now, Decorum loſt, I ſtand
Bemus'd, a Pencil in my hand,
And, dead to ev'ry ſenſe of ſhame,
Careleſs of Safety and of Fame,
The names of Scoundrels minute down,
And Libel more than half the Town.

How

How can a Stateſman be ſecure
In all his Villainies, if poor
And dirty Authors thus ſhall dare
To lay his rotten boſom bare?
Muſes ſhould paſs away their time,
In dreſſing out the Poet's rime
With Bills and Ribbands, and array
Each line in harmleſs taſte, tho' gay.
When the hot burning Fit is on,
They ſhould regale their reſtleſs Son
With ſomething to allay his rage,
Some cool Caſtalian Beverage,
Or ſome ſuch draught (tho' They, 'tis plain,
Taking the Muſes name in vain,
Know nothing of their real court,
And only fable from report)
As makes a WHITEHEAD's Ode go down,
Or ſlakes the Feverette of Brown:
But who would in his Senſes think
Of Muſes giving gall to drink,
Or that their folly ſhould afford
To raving Poets Gun or Sword?
Poets were ne'er deſign'd by fate
To meddle with affairs of State,

Nor ſhould (if we may ſpeak our thought Truely as men of Honour ought)
Sound Policy their rage admit,
To Launch the thunderbolts of Wit
About thoſe heads, which, when they're ſhot,
Can't tell if 'twas by Wit, or not.

Theſe things well known, what Devil in ſpite
Can have ſeduc'd me thus to write
Out of that road, which muſt have led
To riches, without heart or head,
Into that road, which, had I more Than ever Poet had before,
Of Wit and Virtue, in diſgrace
Would keep me ſtill, and out of place,
Which, if ſome Judge (You'll underſtand
One famous, famous thro' the land
For making Law) ſhould ſtand my friend,
At laſt may in a Pill'ry end,
And all this, I my ſelf admit,
Without one cauſe to lead to it.——

For inſtance now—this book—the GHOST—

And ſhrewdly, what I wrote abou
Believe me, much to my diſgrace,
I too am in the ſelf-ſame caſe)
But ſtill I wrote, till FANNY came Impatient, nor could any ſhame
On me with equal juſtice fall,
If She had never come at all.
An Underling, I could not ſtir
Without the Cue thrown out by her
Nor from the ſubject [illegible]

Nor would I to ſo wiſe a nation

If henceforth dully turning o'er
Page after Page, Ye read no more
Of FANNY, who, in Sea or Air,
May be departed God knows where,
Rail at jilt Fortune, but agree
No cenſure can be laid on me,
For ſure (the cauſe let MANSFIELD try)
FANNY is in the fault, not I.

But to return—and this I hold,
A ſecret worth its weight in gold
To thoſe who write, as I write now,
Not to mind where they go, or how,
Thro' ditch, thro' bog, o'er hedge and ſtile,
Make it but worth the Reader's while,
And keep a paſſage fair and plain
Always to bring him back again.
Thro' dirt, who ſcruples to approach,
At pleaſure's call to take a coach,
But we ſhould think the man a clown
Who in the dirt ſhould ſet us down?

But to return—if WIT, who ne'er
The ſhackles of reſtraint could bear,
In wayward humour ſhould refuſe
Her timely ſuccour to the Muſe,
And to no rules and orders tied,
Roughly deny to be her guide,
She muſt renounce Decorum's plan,
And get back when, and how ſhe can,
As Parſons, who, without pretext,
As ſoon as mention'd, quit their text,
And, to promote Sleep's genial pow'r,
Grope in the dark for half an Hour,
Give no more Reaſon (for we know Reaſon is vulgar, mean, and low)
Why they come back (ſhould it befal
That ever they come back at all)
Into the road, to end the rout,
Than they can give Why they went out.

But to return—this Book—the GHOST—
A mere amuſement at the moſt,
A trifle, fit to wear away
The horrors of a rainy day,

A ſlig

A ſlight ſhot ſilk, for ſummer wear,
Juſt as our modern State-men are,
If rigid honeſty permit
That I for once purloin the Wit
Of him, who, were we all to ſteal,
Is much too rich the theft to feel.
Yet in this Book, where Eaſe ſhould join
With Mirth to ſugar ev'ry line,
Where it ſhould all be mere Chit Chat,
Lively, Good humour'd, and all that,
Where honeſt SATIRE, in diſgrace,
Should not ſo much as ſhew her face,
The Shrew, o'erleaping all due bounds,
Breaks into Laughter's ſacred grounds,
And, in contempt, plays o'er her tricks
In Science, Trade, and Politics.

But why ſhould the diſtemper'd Scold
Attempt to blacken Men enroll'd
In Pow'r's dread book, whoſe mighty ſkill
Can twiſt an Empire to their will,
Whoſe Voice is Fate, and on their tongue
Law, Liberty, and Life are hung,

Whom on enquiry, Truth ſhall find,
With STUARTS link'd, time out of mind
Superior to their Country's Laws,
Defenders of a Tyrant's cauſe,
Men, who the ſame damn'd maxims hold Darkly, which they avow'd of old,
Who, tho' by diff'rent means, purſue
The end which they had firſt in view,
And, force found vain, now play their part
With much leſs Honour, much more Art?
Why, at the Corners of the Streets,
To ev'ry Patriot drudge She meets,
Known or unknown, with furious cry
Should She wild clamours vent, or why,
The minds of Groundlings to inflame,
A DASHWOOD, BUTE, and WYNDHAM name?
Why, having not to our ſurprize
The fear of death before her Eyes,
Bearing, and that but now and then,
No other weapon but her pen,
Should She an argument afford,
For blood, to Men who wear a ſword,
Men, who can nicely trim and pare
A point of HONOUR to a hair,

A pretty trinket in a Court,
Which my Lord quite in rapture feels

And might confound a thouſand LOCKES—

A groſs neglect of all thoſe rights

Thanks to my Stars—I now ſee ſhore—
Of Courtiers, and of Courts no more—
Thus ſtumbling on my City Friends,
Blind Chance my guide, my purpoſe bends
In line direct, and ſhall purſue
The point which I had firſt in view,
Nor more ſhall with the reader ſport
Till I have ſeen him ſafe in port.
Huſh'd be each fear—no more I bear
Thro' the wide regions of the air
The Reader terrified, no more
Wild Ocean's horrid paths explore.
Be the plain track from henceforth mine—
Croſs-roads to ALLEN I reſign,
ALLEN, the honour of this nation,
ALLEN, himſelf a Corporation,
ALLEN, of late notorious grown
For writings none, or all his own,
ALLEN, the firſt of letter'd men,
Since the good Biſhop holds his pen,
And at his elbow takes his ſtand
To mend his head, and guide his hand.
But hold—once more Digreſſion hence—
Let us return to Common Senſe,

The Car of PHOEBUS I diſcharge;
My Carriage now a LORD-MAYOR's Barge.

Suppoſe we now—we may ſuppoſe
In Verſe, what would be Sin in Proſe—
The Sky with darkneſs overſpread,
And ev'ry Star retir'd to bed,
The gew-gaw robes of Pomp and Pride
In ſome dark corner thrown aſide,
Great Lords and Ladies giving way
To what they ſeem to ſcorn by day,
The real feelings of the heart,
And Nature taking place of Art,
Deſire triumphant thro' the Night,
And Beauty panting with delight,
Chaſtity, Woman's faireſt crown,
Till the return of Morn laid down,
Then to be worn again as bright
As if not ſullied in the Night,
Dull Ceremony, buſineſs o'er,
Dreaming in form at COTTRELL's door,
Precaution trudging all about
To ſee the Candles ſafely out,

Bearing a mighty Maſter Key,
Habited like Oeconomy,
Stamping each lock with triple ſeals,
Mean AV'RICE creeping at her heels.

Suppoſe we too, like ſheep in Pen,
The Mayor and Court of Aldermen
Within their barge, which thro' the deep,
The Rowers more than half aſleep,
Mov'd ſlow, as over-charg'd with State;
THAMES groan'd beneath the mighty weight,
And felt that bawble heavier far
Than a whole fleet of men of war.
SLEEP o'er each well-known faithful head
With lib'ral hand his Poppies ſhed,
Each head, by DULLNESS rend'red fit
SLEEP and his Empire to admit.
Thro' the whole paſſage not a word,
Not one faint, weak, half ſound was heard;
SLEEP had prevail'd to overwhelm
The Steerſman nodding o'er the helm;
The Rowers, without force or ſkill,
Left the dull Barge to drive at will;

The ſluggiſh Oars ſuſpended hung,
And even BEARDMORE held his tongue.
COMMERCE, regardful of a freight,
On which depended half her State,
Stepp'd to the helm, with ready hand
She ſafely clear'd that bank of Sand,
Where, ſtranded, our Weſt-Country Fleet
Delay and Danger often meet;
Till NEPTUNE, anxious for the trade,
Comes in full tides, and brings them aid;
Next (for the Muſes can ſurvey
Objects by Night as well as day,
Nothing prevents their taking aim,
Darkneſs and Light to them the ſame)
They paſt that building, which of old
Queen-mothers was deſign'd to hold,
At preſent a mere lodging-pen,
A Palace turn'd into a den,
To Barracks turn'd, and Soldiers tread
Where Dowagers have laid their head;
Why ſhould we mention Surrey-Street,
Where ev'ry week grave Judges meet,
All fitted out with hum and ha,
In proper form to drawl out Law,

To

To ſee all cauſes duly tried
'Twixt Knaves who drive, and Fools who ride?
Why at the Temple ſhould we ſtay?
What of the Temple dare we ſay?
A dang'rous ground we tread on there,
And words perhaps may actions bear,
Where, as the Breth'ren of the ſeas
For fares, the Lawyers ply for fees.
What of that Bridge, moſt wiſely made
To ſerve the purpoſes of trade,
In the great Mart of all this Nation,
By ſtopping up the Navigation,
And to that Sand-bank adding weight,
Which is already much too great?—
What of that Bridge, which, void of Senſe,
But well ſupplied with impudence,
Engliſhmen, knowing not the Guild,
Thought they might have a claim to build,
Till PATERSON, as white as milk,
As ſmooth as oil, as ſoft as ſilk,
In ſolemn manner had decreed,
That, on the other ſide the TWEED,
ART, born and bred, and fully grown,
Was with one MYLNE, a man unknown,

But grace, preferment, and renown
Deſerving, juſt arriv'd in town;
One MYLNE, an Artiſt perfect quite,
Both in his own, and country's right,
As fit to make a bridge, as He,
With glorious Patavinity,
To build inſcriptions, worthy found
To lie for ever under ground.

Much more, worth obſervation too,
Was this a ſeaſon to purſue
The theme, Our Muſe might tell in rime;
The Will She hath, but not the time;
For, ſwift as ſhaft from Indian bow,
(And when a Goddeſs comes, we know,
Surpaſſing Nature acts prevail,
And boats want neither oar, nor ſail)
The Veſſel paſt, and reach'd the ſhore
So quick, that Thought was ſcarce before.

Suppoſe we now our City-Court
Safely deliver'd at the port,
And, of their State regardleſs quite,
Landed, like ſmuggled goods, by night;

The

The ſolemn Magiſtrate laid down,
The dignity of robe and gown
With ev'ry other enſign gone;
Suppoſe the woollen Night-Cap on:
The Fleſh-bruſh us'd with decent ſtate
To make the Spirits circulate,
(A form, which to the Senſes true,
The liq'riſh Chaplain uſes too,
Tho', ſomething to improve the plan,
He takes the Maid inſtead of Man)
Swath'd, and with flannel cover'd o'er
To ſhew the vigour of threeſcore,
The vigour of threeſcore and ten
Above the proof of younger men,
Suppoſe, the mighty DULLMAN led Betwixt two ſlaves, and put to bed;
Suppoſe, the moment he lies down,
No miracle in this great town,
The Drone as faſt aſleep, as He Muſt in the courſe of Nature be,
Who, truth for our foundation take,
When up, is never half awake.

There let him ſleep, whilſt we ſurvey
The preparations for the day,
That day, on which was to be ſhewn
Court-Pride by City Pride outdone.

The jealous Mother ſends away,
As only fit for childiſh play,
That Daughter, who, to gall her pride,
Shoots up too forward by her ſide.

The Wretch, of God and man accurs'd,
Of all Hell's inſtruments the worſt,
Draws forth his pawns, and for the day
Struts in ſome Spendthrift's vain array;
Around his aukward doxy ſhine
The treaſures of GOLCONDA's mine,
Each Neighbour, with a jealous glare,
Beholds her folly publiſh'd there.

Garments, well ſav'd (an anecdote
Which we can prove, or would not quote)
Garments well-ſav'd, which firſt were made,
When Taylors, to promote their Trade,

And held her empire, till out-run
By that brave jolly groom the SUN.

The Trumpet—hark! It ſpeaks—It ſwells
The loud full harmony, It tells
The time at hand, when DULLMAN, led
By form, his Citizens muſt head,
And march thoſe troops, which at his call
Were now aſſembled, to Guild-Hall,
On matters of impertance great
To Court and City, Church and State.

From end to end the ſound makes way,
All hear the Signal and obey,
But DULLMAN, who, his charge forgot,
By MORPHEUS fetter'd, heard it not;
Nor could, ſo ſound he ſlept and faſt,
Hear any Trumpet, but the laſt.

CRAPE, ever true and truſty known,
Stole from the Maid's bed to his own,
Then in the Spirituals of pride,
Planted himſelf at DULLMAN's ſide.

Thrice did the ever-faithful Slave,
With voice which might have reach'd the grave,
And broke death's adamantine chain,
On DULLMAN call, but call'd in vain;
Thrice with an arm, which might have made
The THEBAN Boxer curſe his trade,
The drone he ſhook, who rear'd the head,
And thrice fell backward on his bed.
What could be done? where force hath fail'd,
Policy often hath prevail'd,
And what, an inference moſt plain,
Had been, CRAPE thought might be again.

Under his pillow (ſtill in mind
The Proverb kept, faſt bind, faſt find)
Each bleſſed night the keys were laid,
Which CRAPE to draw away aſſay'd.
What not the pow'r of voice or arm
Could do, this did, and broke the charm;
Quick ſtarted He with ſtupid ſtare,
For all his little Soul was there.

Behold him, taken up, rubb'd down,
In Elbow-Chair, and Morning-Gown;

Behold him, in his latter bloom,
Stripp'd, waſh'd, and ſprinkled with perfume
Behold him bending with the weight
Of Robes, and trumpery of State;
Behold him (for the Maxim's true,
Whate'er we by another do,
We do ourſelves, and Chaplain paid,
Like ſlaves, in ev'ry other trade,
Had mutter'd over God knows what,
Something which he by heart had got)
Having, as uſual, ſaid his pray'rs,
Go titter, totter, to the ſtairs;
Behold him for deſcent prepare,
With one foot trembling in the air;
He ſtarts, he pauſes on the brink,
And, hard to credit, ſeems to think;
Thro' his whole train (the Chaplain gave The proper cue to ev'ry ſlave)
At once, as with infection caught,
Each ſtarted, paus'd, and aim'd at thought;
He turns, and they turn; big with care,
He waddles to his Elbow-Chair,
Squats down, and, ſilent for a ſeaſon,
At laſt with CRAPE begins to reaſon;

But firſt of all he made a ſign
That ev'ry ſoul, but the Divine,
Should quit the room; in him, he knows,
He may all confidence repoſe.

CRAPE—tho' I'm yet not quite awake—
Before this awful ſtep I take,
On which my future all depends,
I ought to know my foes and friends.
By foes and friends, obſerve me ſtill,
I mean not thoſe who well, or ill
Perhaps may wiſh me, but thoſe who Have't in their power to do it too.
Now if, attentive to the State,
In too much hurry to be great,
Or thro' much zeal, a motive, CRAPE,
Deſerving praiſe, into a ſcrape
I, like a Fool, am got, no doubt,
I, like a Wiſe Man, ſhould get out.
Not that, remark without replies,
I ſay that to get out is wiſe,
Or, by the very ſelf-ſame rule
That to get in was like a Fool;

The marrow of this argument
Muſt wholly reſt on the event,
And therefore, which is really hard,
Againſt events too I muſt guard.

Should things continue as they ſtand,
And BUTE prevail thro' all the land
Without a rival, by his aid,
My fortunes in a trice are made;
Nay, Honours on my zeal may ſmile,
And ſtamp me Earl of ſome great Iſle;
But, if a matter of much doubt,
The preſent Miniſter goes out,
Fain would I know on what pretext
I can ſtand fairly with the next?
For as my aim at ev'ry hour
Is to be well with thoſe in pow'r,
And my material point of view,
Whoever's in, to be in too,
I ſhould not, like a blockhead, chuſe
To gain theſe ſo as thoſe to loſe;
'Tis good in ev'ry caſe, You know,
To have two ſtrings unto our bow.

As one in wonder loſt, CRAPE view'd
His Lord, who thus his ſpeech purſued.

This, my good CRAPE, is my grand point,
And, as the times are out of joint,
The greater caution is requir'd
To bring about the point deſir'd.
What I would wiſh to bring about
Cannot admit a moment's doubt;
The matter in diſpute, You know,
Is what we call the quomodo.
That be thy taſk—The Rev'rend Slave,
Becoming in a moment grave,
Fixt to the ground and rooted ſtood,
Juſt like a man cut out of wood,
Such as we ſee (without the leaſt Reflection glancing on the Prieſt)
One or more, planted up and down,
Almoſt in ev'ry Church in town;
He ſtood ſome minutes, then, like one
Who wiſh'd the matter might be done,
But could not do it, ſhook his head,
And thus the man of Sorrow ſaid:

Hard is this taſk, too hard I ſwear,
By much too hard for me to bear,
Beyond expreſſion hard my part,
Could mighty DULLMAN ſee my heart,
When He, alas! makes known a will,
Which CRAPE's not able to fulfil.
Was ever my obedience barr'd
By any trifling nice regard
To Senſe and Honour? could I reach
Thy meaning without help of ſpeech,
At the firſt motion of thy eye
Did not thy faithful creature fly?
Have I not ſaid, not what I ought,
But what by earthly Maſter taught?
Did I e'er weigh, thro' duty ſtrong,
In thy great biddings, right and wrong?
Did ever Int'reſt, to whom Thou
Can'ſt not with more devotion bow,
Warp my ſound faith, or will of mine
In contradiction run to thine?
Have I not, at thy table plac'd,
When buſineſs call'd aloud for haſte,
Torn myſelf thence, yet never heard
To utter one complaining word,

And had, till thy great work was done,
All appetites, as having none?
Hard is it, this great plan purſu'd
Of Voluntary ſervitude,
Purſued, without or ſhame or fear,
Thro' the great circle of the Year;
Now to receive, in this grand hour,
Commands which lie beyond my pow'r;
Commands which baffle all my ſkill,
And leave me nothing but my will:
Be that accepted; let my Lord
Indulgence to his ſlave afford;
This Taſk, for my poor ſtrength unfit,
Will yield to none but DULLMAN's wit.

With ſuch groſs incenſe gratified,
And turning up the lip of pride,
Poor CRAPE—and ſhook his empty head—
Poor puzzled CRAPE, wife DULLMAN ſaid,
Of judgment weak, of ſenſe confin'd,
For things of lower note deſign'd,
For things within the vulgar reach,
To run of errands, and to preach,

Well haſt Thou judg'd, that heads like mine
Cannot want help from heads like thine;
Well haſt Thou judg'd thyſelf unmeet
Of ſuch high argument to treat;
'Twas but to try thee that I ſpoke,
And all I ſaid was but a joke.

Nor think a joke, CRAPE, a diſgrace
Or to my Perſon, or my place;
The wiſeſt of the Sons of Men
Have deign'd to uſe them now and then.
The only caution, do You ſee,
Demanded by our dignity,
From common uſe and men exempt,
Is that they may not breed contempt.
Great Uſe they have, when in the hands
Of One, like me, who underſtands,
Who underſtands the time and place,
The perſons, manner, and the grace,
Which Fools neglect; ſo that we find,
If all the requiſites are join'd,
From whence a perfect joke muſt ſpring,
A joke's a very ſerious thing.

But to our buſineſs—my deſign,
Which gave ſo rough a ſhock to thine,
To my Capacity is made
As ready as a fraud in trade,
Which, like Broad-Cloth, I can, with eaſe,
Cut out in any ſhape I pleaſe.

Some, in my circumſtance, ſome few,
Aye, and thoſe men of Genius too,
Good Men, who, without Love or Hate,
Whether they early riſe or late,
With names uncrack'd, and credit ſound,
Riſe worth a hundred thouſand pound,
By threadbare ways and means would try
To bear their point—ſo will not I.
New methods ſhall my wiſdom find
To ſuit theſe matters to my mind,
So that the Infidels at Court,
Who make our City Wits their ſport,
Shall hail the honours of my reign,
And own that DULLMAN bears a brain.

Some, in my place, to gain their ends,
Would give relations up, and friends;

Would

Would lend a wife, who they might ſwear
Safely, was none the worſe for wear;
Would ſee a Daughter, yet a maid,
Into a Stateſman's arms betray'd,
Nay, ſhould the Girl prove coy, nor know
What Daughters to a Father owe,
Sooner than ſchemes ſo nobly plann'd
Should fail, themſelves would lend a hand;
Would vote on one ſide, whilſt a brother,
Properly taught, would vote on t'other;
Would ev'ry petty band forget;
To public eye be with one ſet,
In private with a ſecond herd,
And be by Proxy with a third;
Would (like a Queen, of whom I read
The other day—her name is fled—
In a book (where, together bound,
WHITTINGTON and his CAT I found,
A tale moſt true, and free from art,
Which all LORD-MAYORS ſhould have by heart)
A Queen (O might thoſe days begin Afreſh when Queens would learn to ſpin)
Who wrought, and wrought, but, for ſome plot,
The cauſe of which I've now forgot,

During

During the abſence of the Sun
Undid what She by day had done)
Whilſt they a double viſage wear,
What's ſworn by Day, by Night unſwear.

Such be their Arts, and ſuch perchance
May happily their ends advance:
From a new ſyſtem mine ſhall ſpring,
A LOCUM-TENENS is the thing.
That's your true Plan—to obligate
The preſent Miniſters of State,
My Shadow ſhall our Court approach,
And bear my pow'r, and have my coach,
My fine State-Coach, ſuperb to view,
A fine State-Coach, and paid for too;
To curry favour, and the grace
Obtain, of thoſe who're out of place,
In the mean time I—that's to ſay—
I proper, I myſelf—here ſtay.

But hold—perhaps unto the Nation,
Who hate the Scot's adminiſtration,
To lend my Coach may ſeem to be Declaring for the Miniſtry,

For

For where the City-Coach is, there
Is the true eſſence of the MAYOR.
Therefore (for wiſe men are intent
Evils at diſtance to prevent,
Whilſt Fools the evils firſt endure,
And then are plagu'd to ſeek a cure)
No Coach—a Horſe—and free from fear
To make our Deputy appear,
Faſt on his back ſhall he be tied,
With two grooms marching by his ſide,
Then for a Horſe—thro' all the land,
To head our ſolemn City-band,
Can any one ſo fit be found,
As He, who in Artill'ry-ground,
Without a Rider, noble Sight,
Led on our braveſt troops to fight.

But firſt, CRAPE, for my Honour's ſake,
A tender point, enquiry make
About that Horſe, if the diſpute
Is ended, or is ſtill in ſuit.
For whilſt a cauſe (obſerve this plan Of Juſtice) whether Horſe or Man

The parties be, remains in doubt,
Till 'tis determin'd out and out,
That Pow'r muſt tyranny appear,
Which ſhould, Pre-judging, interfere,
And weak faint Judges over-awe
To bias the free courſe of Law.

You have my will—now quickly run,
And take care that my will be done.
In public, CRAPE, You muſt appear,
Whilſt I in privacy ſit here;
Here ſhall great DULLMAN ſit alone,
Making this Elbow-Chair my throne,
And, You performing what I bid,
Do all, as if I nothing did.

CRAPE heard, and ſpeeded on his way;
With him to hear was to obey;
Not without trouble be aſſur'd,
A proper Proxy was procur'd
To ſerve ſuch infamous intent,
And ſuch a Lord to repreſent,
Nor could one have been found at all
On t'other ſide of London-wall.

The trumpet ſounds—ſolemn and ſlow
Behold the grand Proceſſion go,
All moving on, Cat after kind,
As if for motion ne'er deſign'd.

Conſtables, whom the Laws admit
To keep the Peace by breaking it;
Beadles, who hold the ſecond place
By virtue of a ſilver mace,
Which ev'ry Saturday is drawn,
For uſe of Sunday, out of pawn;
Treaſurers, who with empty key
Secure an empty Treaſury;
Churchwardens, who their courſe purſue
In the ſame ſtate, as to their pew
Churchwardens of Saint Marg'ret go,
Since PEIRSON taught them pride and ſhow,
Who in ſhort tranſient pomp appear,
Like Almanacks chang'd ev'ry year,
Behind whom, with unbroken locks,
CHARITY carries the Poor's Box,
Not knowing that with private keys
They ope and ſhut it when they pleaſe,

Overſeers,

Overſeers, who by frauds enſure
The heavy curſes of the poor;
Unclean came flocking, Bulls and Bears,
Like Beaſts into the ark, by pairs.

Portentous flaming in the van
Stalk'd the Profeſſor SHERIDAN;
A Man of wire, a mere Pantine,
A downright animal Machine.
He knows alone in proper mode
How to take vengeance on an Ode,
And how to butcher AMMON's Son,
And poor Jack Dryden both in One.
On all occaſions next the Chair
He ſtand for ſervice of the MAYOR,
And to inſtruct him how to uſe,
His A's and B's, and P's and Q's.
O'er Letters, into tatters worn,
O'er Syllables, defac'd and torn,
O'er Words disjointed, and o'er Senſe,
Left deſtitute of all defence,
He ſtrides, and all the way he goes,
Wades, deep in blood, o'er Criſs-Croſs-Rows.

Before

Before him ev'ry Conſonant
In agonies is ſeen to pant;
Behind, in forms not to be known,
The Ghoſts of tortur'd Vowels groan.

Next HART and DUKE, well worthy grace
And City favour, came in place.
No Children can their toils engage,
Their toils are turn'd to Rev'rend Age,
When a Court-Dame, to grace his brows
Reſolv'd, is wed to City Spouſe,
Their aid with Madam's aid muſt join
The aukward Dotard to refine,
And teach, whence trueſt glory flows,
Grave Sixty to turn out his toes.
Each bore in hand a Kit, and each
To ſhew how fit he was to teach
A Cit, an Alderman, a Mayor,
Led in a ſtring a dancing Bear.

Since the revival of Fingal,
Cuſtom, and Cuſtom's all in all,
Commands that we ſhould have regard,
On all high ſeaſons, to the Bard.

Great acts like theſe, by vulgar tongue
Profan'd, ſhould not be ſaid, but ſung.
This place to fill, renown'd in fame,
The high and mighty LOCKMAN came,
And, ne'er forgot in DULLMAN's reign,
With proper order to maintain
The Uniformity of Pride,
Brought Brother WHITEHEAD by his ſide.

On Horſe, who proudly paw'd the ground,
And caſt his fiery eyeballs round,
Snorting, and champing the rude bit,
As if, for warlike purpoſe fit,
His high and gen'rous blood diſdain'd
To be for ſports and paſtimes rein'd,
Great DYMOCK, in his glorious ſtation,
Paraded at the Coronation.
Not ſo our City DYMOCK came,
Heavy, diſpirited, and tame,
No mark of ſenſe, his eyes half-clos'd,
He on a mighty Dray-horſe doz'd.
Fate never could a horſe provide
So fit for ſuch a man to ride,

The tides of life more rapid run,
And tell me I am FREEDOM's Son—
FREEDOM came next, but ſcarce was ſeen,
When the ſky, which appear'd ſerene
And gay before, was overcaſt;
Horror beſtrode a foreign blaſt,
And from the priſon of the North,
To FREEDOM deadly, Storms burſt forth.

A Car like thoſe, in which, we're told,
Our wild Forefathers warr'd of old,
Loaded with Death, ſix Horſes bear
Thro' the blank region of the air.
Too fierce for time or art to tame,
They pour'd forth mingled ſmoke and flame
From their wide Noſtrils; ev'ry Steed
Was of that ancient ſavage breed
Which fell GERYON nurs'd; their food
The fleſh of Man, their drink his blood.

On the firſt Horſes, ill-match'd pair,
This fat and ſleek, That lean and bare,
Came ill-match'd Riders ſide by ſide,
And POVERTY was yok'd with PRIDE.
Union moſt ſtrange it muſt appear,
Till other Unions make it clear.

Next, in the gall of bitterneſs,
With rage, which words can ill expreſs,
With unforgiving rage, which ſprings
From a falſe zeal for holy things,
Wearing ſuch robes as Prophets wear,
Falſe Prophets plac'd in PETER's chair,
On which, in Characters of fire,
Shapes Antic, horrible and dire,
Inwoven flam'd, where, to the view,
In groups appear'd a rabble crew
Of Sainted Devils, where all round
Vile Reliques of vile men were found,
Who, worſe than Devils, from the birth
Perform'd the work of Hell on earth,
Jugglers, Inquiſitors, and Popes,
Pointing at axes, wheels, and ropes,

And Engines, fram'd on horrid plan,
Which none but the deſtroyer, Man,
Could, to promote his ſelfiſh views,
Have heads to make, or hearts to uſe,
Bearing, to conſecrate her tricks,
In her left-hand a Crucifix,
Remembrance of Our dying Lord,
And in her right a two-edg'd ſword;
Having her brows, in impious ſport,
Adorn'd with words of high import,
On earth PEACE, amongſt men, GOOD WILL,
LOVE bearing, and forbearing ſtill,
All wrote in the hearts-blood of thoſe
Who rather Death than Falſhood choſe;
On her breaſt, (where, in days of Yore,
When God lov'd Jews, the HIGH-PRIEST wore
Th ſe Oracles, which were decreed
T' inſtruct and guide the choſen ſeed)
Having with glory clad and ſtrength,
The VIRGIN pictur'd at full length,
Whilſt at her feet, in ſmall pourtray'd,
As ſcarce worth notice, CHRIST was laid,
Came SUPERSTITION, fierce and fell,
An Imp deteſted, e'en in hell;

Her Eye inflam'd, her face all o'er
Foully beſmear'd with human gore,
O'er heaps of mangled Saints She rode;
Faſt at her heels DEATH proudly ſtrode,
And grimly ſmil'd, well-pleas'd to ſee
Such havock of mortality.
Cloſe by her ſide, on miſchief bent,
And urging on each bad intent
To its full bearing, Savage, Wild,
The Mother fit of ſuch a child,
Striving the empire to advance
Of Sin and Death, came IGNORANCE.

With looks, where dread command was plac'd,
And Sov'reign Pow'r by Pride diſgrac'd,
Where, loudly witneſſing a mind
Of ſavage more than human kind,
Not chuſing to be lov'd, but fear'd,
Mocking at right, MISRULE appear'd,
With Eyeballs glaring fiery red
Enough to ſtrike beholders dead,
Gnaſhing his teeth, and in a flood
Pouring corruption forth and blood

From his chaf'd jaws; without remorſe
Whipping, and ſpurring on his horſe,
Whoſe ſides, in their own blood embay'd,
E'en to the bone were open laid,
Came TYRANNY; diſdaining awe,
And trampling over Senſe and Law.
One thing and only one He knew,
One object only would purſue,
Tho' Leſs (ſo low doth paſſion bring)
Than man, he would be more than King.

With ev'ry argument and art,
Which might corrupt the head and heart,
Soothing the frenzy of his mind,
Companion meet, was FLATT'RY join'd.
Winning his carriage, ev'ry look
Employ'd, whilſt it conceal'd a hook;
When ſimple moſt, moſt to be fear'd;
Moſt crafty, when no craft appear'd;
His tales, no man like him could tell;
His words, which melted as they fell,
Might e'en a Hypocrite deceive,
And make an infidel believe,

Wantonly

Wantonly cheating o'er and o'er
Thoſe who had cheated been before,
Such FLATT'RY came in evil hour,
Pois'ning the royal ear of pow'r,
And, grown by Proſtitution great,
Would be firſt Miniſter of State.

Within the Chariot, all alone,
High ſeated on a kind of throne,
With pebbles grac'd, a Figure came,
Whom Juſtice would, but dare not, name.
Hard times when Juſtice, without fear,
Dare not bring forth to public ear
The names of thoſe, who dare offend
'Gainſt Juſtice, and pervert her end;
But, if the Muſe afford me grace,
Deſcription ſhall ſupply the place.

In foreign garments he was clad,
Sage Ermine o'er the gloſſy Plaid,
Caſt rev'rend honour, on his heart,
Wrought by the curious hand of Art,
In ſilver wrought, and brighter far
Than heav'nly or than earthly Star,

Shone

Shone a White Roſe, the Emblem dear
Of him He ever muſt revere,
Of that dread Lord, who, with his hoſt
Of faithful native rebels loſt,
Like thoſe black Spirits doom'd to hell,
At once from pow'r and virtue fell;
Around his clouded brows was plac'd
A Bonnet, moſt ſuperbly grac'd
With mighty Thiſtles, nor forgot
The ſacred motto, Touch me not.

In the right-hand a ſword He bore
Harder than Adamant, and more
Fatal than winds, which from the mouth
Of the rough North invade the South;
The reeking blade to view preſents
The blood of helpleſs Innocents,
And on the hilt, as meek become
As Lambs before the Shearers dumb,
With downcaſt eye, and ſolemn ſhow,
Of deep unutterable woe,
Mourning the time when FREEDOM reign'd,
Faſt to a rock was Juſtice chain'd.

In his left hand, in wax impreſt,
With bells and gewgaws idly dreſt,
An Image, caſt in baby mould,
He held, and ſeem'd o'erjoy'd to hold.
On this he fix'd his eyes, to this Bowing he gave the loyal kiſs,
And, for Rebellion fully ripe,
Seem'd to deſire the ANTITYPE.
What if to that Pretender's foes
His greatneſs, nay, his life he owes,
Shall common obligations bind,
And ſhake his conſtancy of mind?
Scorning ſuch weak and petty chains,
Faithful to JAMES he ſtill remains,
Tho' he the friend of GEORGE appear:
Diſſimulation's Virtue here.

Jealous and Mean, he with a frown
Would awe, and keep all merit down,
Nor would to Truth and Juſtice bend,
Unleſs out-bullied by his friend;
Brave with the Coward, with the brave
He is himſelf a Coward ſlave;

Aw'd by his fears, he has no heart
To take a great and open part;
Mines in a ſubtle train he ſprings,
And, ſecret, ſaps the ears of Kings;
But not e'en there continues firm
'Gainſt the reſiſtance of a worm;
Born in a Country, where the will
Of One is Law to all, he ſtill
Retain'd th' infection, with full aim
To ſpread it whereſoe'er he came;
Freedom he hated, Law defied,
The Proſtitute of Pow'r and Pride;
Law he with eaſe explains away,
And leads bewilder'd Senſe aſtray;
Much to the credit of his brain
Puzzles the cauſe he can't maintain,
Proceeds on moſt familiar grounds,
And, where he can't convince, confounds;
Talents of rareſt ſtamp and ſize,
To Nature falſe, he miſapplies,
And turns to poiſon what was ſent
For purpoſes of nouriſhment.

Palem

Paleneſs, not ſuch as on his wings
The Meſſenger of Sickneſs brings,
But ſuch as takes its coward riſe
From conſcious baſeneſs, conſcious vice,
O'erſpread his cheeks; Diſdain and Pride,
To upſtart Fortunes ever tied,
Scowl'd on his brow; within his eye,
Inſidious, lurking like a ſpy
To Caution principled by Fear,
Not daring open to appear,
Lodg'd covert Miſchief; Paſſion hung
On his lip quiv'ring; on his tongue
Fraud dwelt at large; within his breaſt
All that makes Villain found a neſt,
All that, on hell's compleateſt plan,
E'er join'd to damn the heart of man.

Soon as the Car reach'd land, He roſe,
And with a look which might have froze
The heart's beſt blood, which was enough
Had hearts been made of ſterner ſtuff
In Cities than elſewhere, to make
The very ſtouteſt quail and quake,

He caſt his baleful eyes around;
Fix'd without motion to the ground,
Fear waiting on ſurprize, All ſtood,
And Horror chill'd their curdled blood,
No more they thought of Pomp, no more
(For they had ſeen his face before)
Of Law they thought; the cauſe forgot,
Whether it was or Ghoſt, or Plot,
Which drew them there. They all ſtood more
Like Statues than they were before.

What could be done? Could Art, could Force,
Or Both direct a proper courſe
To make this ſavage Monſter tame,
Or ſend him back the way he came?
What neither Art, nor Force, nor Both
Could do, a Lord of foreign growth,
A Lord to that baſe wretch allied
In Country, not in Vice and Pride,
Effected; from the ſelf-ſame land,
(Bad news for our blaſpheming band
Of Scribblers, but deſerving note)
The Poiſon came, and Antidote.

Abaſh'

Abaſh'd the Monſter hung his head;
And, like an empty Viſion, fled;
His Train, like Virgin Snows which run,
Diſs'd by the burning bawdy Sun,
To loveſick ſtreams, diſſolv'd in Air;
Joy, who from abſence ſeem'd more fair,
Came ſmiling, freed from ſlaviſh awe;
ROYALTY, LIBERTY, and LAW,
Impatient of the galling chain,
And Yoke of pow'r, reſum'd their reign;
And, burning with the glorious flame
Of Public Virtue, MANSFIELD came.

END OF THE GHOST.

CONFERENCE.

GRACE ſaid in form, which Sceptics muſt agree,
When they are told that Grace was ſaid by Me;
The Servants gone, to break the ſcurvy jeſt
On the proud Landlord, and his thread-bare gueſt;
The King gone round, my Lady too withdrawn,
My Lord, in uſual taſte, began to yawn,
And lolling backward in his elbow-chair,
With an inſipid kind of ſtupid ſtare,

Picking his teeth, twirling his ſeals about—
CHURCHILL, You have a Poem coming out.
You've my beſt wiſhes; but I really fear
Your Muſe in general is too ſevere,
Her Spirit ſeems her int'reſt to oppoſe,
And where ſhe makes one friend, makes twenty foes.

C. Your Lordſhip's fears are juſt, I feel their force,
But only feel it as a thing of courſe.
The man whoſe hardy ſpirit ſhall engage
To laſh the vices of a guilty age,
At his firſt ſetting forward ought to know,
That ev'ry rogue he meets muſt be his foe,
That the rude breath of Satire will provoke
Many who feel, and more who fear the ſtroke.
But ſhall the partial rage of ſelfiſh men
From ſtubborn juſtice wrench the righteous pen,
Or ſhall I not my ſettled courſe purſue,
Becauſe my foes, are foes to Virtue too?

L. What is this boaſted Virtue, taught in ſchools,
And idly drawn from antiquated rules?
What is her uſe? point out one wholeſome end?
Will ſhe hurt foes, or can ſhe make a friend?

When from long faſts fierce appetites ariſe,
Can this ſame Virtue ſtifle Nature's cries?
Can ſhe the pittance of a meal afford,
Or bid thee welcome to one great man's board?
When northern winds the rough December arm
With froſt and ſnow, can Virtue keep thee warm?
Canſt thou diſmiſs the hard unfeeling Dun
Barely by ſaying, Thou art Virtue's Son?
Or by baſe blundring Stateſmen ſent to jail,
Will MANSFIELD take this Virtue for thy bail?
Believe it not, the name is in diſgrace,
Virtue and TEMPLE now are out of place.

Quit then this meteor, whoſe deluſive ray
From wealth and honour leads thee far aſtray.
True Virtue means, let Reaſon uſe her eyes,
Nothing with Fools, and Int'reſt with the Wiſe.
Would'ſt thou be great, her patronage diſclaim,
Nor madly triumph in ſo mean a name:
Let nobler wreaths thy happy brows adorn,
And leave to Virtue poverty and ſcorn.
Let Prudence be thy guide; who doth not know
How ſeldom Prudence can with Virtue go?

Of that kind Maſter who firſt gav
Scatters the ſeeds of diſcord thro' t

Beholds with joy a truſting friend u
Betrays a Brother, and would cheat

" Feel all death's pains, yet be whol
Is now the gen'ral cry we all purſue;
Let FORTUNE change, and PRUDE
Supple and pliant a new ſyſtem feels,
Throws up her Cap, and ſpaniels at

Let their baſe ſervices in Courts ſtrike root,
And in the ſeaſon bring forth golden fruit,
I envy not; let thoſe who have the will,
And, with ſo little Spirit, ſo much ſkill,
With ſuch vile inſtruments their fortunes carve;
Rogues may grow fat, an honeſt man dares ſtarve.

L. Theſe ſtale conceits thrown off, let us advance
For once to real life, and quit Romance.
Starve! pretty talking! but I fain would view
That man, that honeſt man, would do it too.
Hence to yon mountain which outbraves the ſky,
And dart from pole to pole thy ſtrengthen'd eye,
Thro' all that ſpace you ſhall not view one man,
Not one, who dares to act on ſuch a plan.
Cowards in calms will ſay, what in a ſtorm,
The Brave will tremble at, and not perform.
Thine be the proof, and, ſpite of all you've ſaid,
You'd give your Honour for a cruſt of bread.

C. What Proof might do, what Hunger might effect,
What famiſh'd Nature, looking with neglect
On all ſhe once held dear, what Fear, at ſtrife
With fainting Virtue for the means of life,

Might

Might make this coward fleſh, in love with breath,
Shudd'ring at pain, and ſhrinking back from death,
In treaſon to my ſoul, deſcend to bear;
Truſting to Fate, I neither know nor care.

Once, at this hour thoſe wounds afreſh I feel,
Which nor proſperity nor time can heal,
Thoſe wounds, which Fate ſeverely hath decreed,
Mention'd or thought of, muſt for ever bleed,
Thoſe wounds, which humbled all that pride of man,
Which brings ſuch mighty aid to Virtue's plan;
Once, aw'd by Fortune's moſt oppreſſive frown,
By legal rapine to the earth bow'd down,
My credit at laſt gaſp, my ſtate undone,
Trembling to meet the ſhock I could not ſhun,
Virtue gave ground, and black deſpair prevail'd;
Sinking beneath the ſtorm, my ſpirits fail'd,
Like PETER's Faith, 'till One, a Friend indeed,
May all diſtreſs find ſuch in time of need,
One kind good man, in act, in word, in thought,
By Virtue guided, and by Wiſdom taught,
Image of him whom Chriſtians ſhould adore,
Stretch'd forth his hand, and brought me ſafe to ſhore.

Since,

Since, by good fortune into notice rais'd,
And for ſome little merit largely prais'd,
Indulg'd in ſwerving from prudential rules,
Hated by rogues, and not belov'd by fools,
Plac'd above want, ſhall abject thirſt of wealth
So fiercely war 'gainſt my ſoul's deareſt health,
That, as a boon, I ſhould baſe ſhackles crave,
And, born to freedom, make myſelf a ſlave;
That I ſhould in the train of thoſe appear,
Whom Honour cannot love, nor Manhood fear?

That I no longer ſkulk from ſtreet to ſtreet,
Afraid leſt Duns aſſail, and Bailiffs meet;
That I from place to place this carcaſe bear,
Walk forth at large, and wander free as air;
That I no longer dread the aukward friend,
Whoſe very obligations muſt offend,
Nor, all too forward, with impatience burn
At ſuff'ring favours which I can't return;
That, from dependance and from pride ſecure,
I am not plac'd ſo high to ſcorn the poor,
Nor yet ſo low, that I my Lord ſhould fear,
Or heſitate to give him ſneer for ſneer;

That

... with the will have power to a

From the indulgence of the PUBL.
All private patronage my ſoul deſies
By Candour more inclin'd to ſave,
A gen'rous PUBLIC made me what
All that I have, They gave; juſt m

What do we —

MAJORS and MINORS differ but in name,
Patriots and Miniſters are much the ſame;
The only diff'rence, after all their rout,
Is that the One is in, the Other out.

Explore the dark receſſes of the mind,
In the Soul's honeſt volume read mankind,
And own, in wiſe and ſimple, great and ſmall,
The ſame grand leading Principle in All.
Whate'er we talk of wiſdom to the wiſe,
Of goodneſs to the good, of public ties
Which to our country link, of private bands
Which claim moſt dear attention at our hands,
For Parent and for Child, for Wife and Friend,
Our firſt great Mover, and our laſt great End,
Is One, and, by whatever name we call
The ruling Tyrant SELF is All in All.
This, which unwilling Faction ſhall admit,
Guided in diff'rent ways a BUTE and PITT,
Made Tyrants break, made Kings obſerve the law,
And gave the world a STUART and NASSAU.

Hath Nature (ſtrange and wild conceit of Pride)
Diſtinguiſh'd thee from all her ſons beſide?

Doth

Doth Virtue in thy boſom brighter glow,
Or from a ſpring more pure doth Action flow?
Is not thy ſoul bound with thoſe very chains
Which ſhackle us, or is that SELF, which reigns
O'er Kings and Beggars, which in all we ſee
Moſt ſtrong and ſov'reign, only weak in Thee?
Fond man, believe it not; experience tells
'Tis not thy Virtue, but thy Pride rebels.
Think (and for once lay by thy lawleſs pen)
Think, and confeſs thyſelf like other men;
Think but one hour, and, to thy Conſcience led
By Reaſon's hand, bow down and hang thy head;
Think on thy private life, recal thy youth,
View thyſelf now, and own with ſtricteſt truth,
That SELF hath drawn thee from fair Virtue's way
Farther than Folly would have dar'd to ſtray,
And that the talents lib'ral Nature gave
To make thee free, have made thee more a ſlave.

Quit then, in prudence quit, that idle train
Of toys, which have ſo long abus'd thy brain,
And captive led thy pow'rs; with boundleſs will Let SELF maintain her ſtate and empire ſtill,

But

But let her, with more worthy objects caught,
Strain all the faculties and force of thought
To things of higher daring; let her range
Thro' better paſtures, and learn how to change;
Let her, no longer to weak faction tied,
Wiſely revolt, and join our ſtronger ſide.

C. Ah! what, my Lord, hath private life to do
With things of public nature? why to view
Would you thus cruelly thoſe ſcenes unfold,
Which, without pain and horror to behold,
Muſt ſpeak me ſomething more, or leſs than man;
Which Friends may pardon, but I never can?
Look back! a thought which borders on deſpair,
Which human nature muſt, yet cannot bear.
Tis not the babbling of a buſy world,
Where praiſe and cenſure are at random hurl'd,
Which can the meaneſt of my thoughts controul,
Or ſhake one ſettled purpoſe of my ſoul.
Free and at large might their wild curſes roam,
If All, if All alas! were well at home.
No—'tis the tale which angry Conſcience tells,
When ſhe with more than tragic horror ſwells

Each

Each circumſtance of guilt; when ſtern, but true,
She brings bad actions forth into review;
And, like the dread hand-writing on the wall,
Bids late Remorſe awake at Reaſon's call,
Arm'd at all points bids Scorpion Vengeance paſs,
And to the mind holds up Reflection's glaſs,
The mind, which ſtarting, heaves the heart-felt groan,
And hates that form ſhe knows to be her own.

Enough of this—let private ſorrows reſt—
As to the Public I dare ſtand the teſt;
Dare proudly boaſt, I feel no wiſh above
The good of ENGLAND, and my Country's love.
Stranger to party-rage, by Reaſon's voice,
Unerring guide, directed in my choice,
Not all the tyrant pow'rs of earth combin'd,
No, nor of hell, ſhall make me change my mind.
What! herd with men my honeſt ſoul diſdains,
Men who, with ſervile zeal, are forging chains
For Freedom's neck, and lend a helping hand,
To ſpread deſtruction o'er my native land.
What! ſhall I not, e'en to my lateſt breath,
In the full face of danger and of death, hat little ſtrength which Nature gave,

ıldly ſtem, or periſh in the wave?

When I look backward for ſome fifty years,
: Proteſting Patriots turn'd to Peers;
ıen, moſt looſe, for decency declaim, lk of Character without a name;
idels aſſert the cauſe of God,
eek Divines wield Perſecution's rod;
n transform'd to brutes, and brutes to men,
HITEHEAD take a place, Ralph change his pen, the zeal, and deem the men in ſport, ail at Miniſters, and curſe a Court.
haughty as thou art, and proud in rime,
ıme Preferment, offer'd at a time
Virtue ſleeps, ſome Sacrifice to Pride, ıe fair Victim, move to change thy ſide.
hall theſe eyes behold, to health reſtor'd, as Prudence bids, bold Satire's ſword,
; thy preſent friends, and praiſing thoſe, ı now thy frenzy holds thy greateſt foes.

May I, (can worſe diſgrace on manhood fall?)
n a WHITEHEAD, and baptiz'd a PAUL;

May I (tho' to his ſervice deeply tied By ſacred oaths, and now by will allied)
With falſe feign'd zeal an injur'd God defend,
And uſe his name for ſome baſe private end;
May I (that thought bids double horrors roll O'er my ſick ſpirits, and unmans my ſoul)
Ruin the Virtue which I held moſt dear,
And ſtill muſt hold; may I, thro' abject fear,
Betray my friend; may to ſucceeding times,
Engrav'd on plates of adamant, my crimes
Stand blazing forth, whilſt mark'd with envious blot,
Each little act of Virtue is forgot;
Of all thoſe evils which, to ſtamp men curs'd,
Hell keeps in ſtore for vengeance, may the worſt
Light on my head, and in my day of woe,
To make the cup of bitterneſs o'erflow,
May I be ſcorn'd by ev'ry man of worth,
Wander, like Cain, a vagabond on earth,
Bearing about a hell in my own mind,
Or be to SCOTLAND for my life confin'd,
If I am one among the many known,
Whom SHELBURNE fled, and CALCRAFT bluſh'd to own.

L. Do

L. Do you reflect what men you make your foes?

C. I do, and that's the reaſon I oppoſe.
Friends I have made, whom Envy muſt commend,
But not one foe, whom I would wiſh a friend.
What if ten thouſand BUTES and HOLLANDS bawl,
One WILKES hath made a large amends for all.

'Tis not the Title, whether handed down
From age to age, or flowing from the crown
In copious ſtreams on recent men, who came From ſtems unknown, and ſires without a name;
'Tis not the Star, which our great EDWARD gave
To mark the virtuous, and reward the brave,
Blazing without, whilſt a baſe heart within
Is rotten to the core with filth and ſin;
'Tis not the tinſel grandeur, taught to wait,
At cuſtom's call, to mark a fool of State
From fools of leſſer note, that Soul can awe
Whoſe Pride is Reaſon, whoſe Defence is Law.

L. Suppoſe (a thing ſcarce poſſible in Art,
Were it thy Cue to play a common Part;)

Whilſt GEORGE is King, I cannot fear endure;
Not to be guilty, is to be ſecure.

But when, in after-times, (be far remov'd
That day) our Monarch, glorious and belov'd,
Sleeps with his Fathers, ſhould imperious Fate,
In vengeance, with freſh STUARTS curſe our ſtate;
Should they, o'erleaping ev'ry fence of Law,
Butcher the brave to keep tame fools in awe;
Should they, by brutal and oppreſſive force,
Divert ſweet Juſtice from her even courſe;
Should they, of ev'ry other means bereft,
Make my right-hand a witneſs 'gainſt my left;
Should they, abroad by Inquiſitions taught,
Search out my Soul, and damn me for a thought,
Still would I keep my courſe, ſtill ſpeak, ſtill write,
'Till Death had plung'd me in the ſhades of Night.

Thou GOD of Truth, thou great, all-ſearching Eye,
To whom our Thoughts, our Spirits open lie,
Grant me thy ſtrength, and in that needful hour,
(Should it e'er come) when Law ſubmits to Pow'r,
With firm reſolve my ſteady boſom ſteel,
Bravely to ſuffer, tho' I deeply feel.

Let

Let me, as hitherto, ſtill draw my breath,
In love with life, but not in fear of death,
And, if Oppreſſion brings me to the grave,
And marks me dead, ſhe ne'er ſhall mark a ſlave,
Let no unworthy marks of grief be heard,
No wild laments, not one unſeemly word;
Let ſober Triumphs wait upon my bier,
I won't forgive that friend who drops one tear.
Whether he's raviſh'd in life's early morn,
Or, in old age, drops like an ear of Corn,
Full ripe he falls, on Nature's nobleſt plan,
Who lives to Reaſon, and who dies a Man.

ACCURS'D the man, whom fate ordains in ſpite,
And cruel parents teach, to Read and Write!
What need of letters? Wherefore ſhould we ſpell?
Why write our names? A mark will do as well.

Much are the precious hours of youth miſpent,
In climbing Learning's rugged ſteep aſcent;
When to the top the bold advent'rer's got,

Where Heroes, Parent-like, the Poet view'd,
By whom they ſaw their glorious deeds renew'd;
Where Poets, true to Honour, tun'd their lays,
And by their Patrons ſanctify'd their praiſe?
Is this the Land, where, on our SPENCER's tongue,
Enamour'd of his voice, Deſcription hung;
Where JONSON rigid gravity beguil'd,
Whilſt Reaſon thro' her Critic fences ſmil'd;
Where NATURE liſt'ning ſtood, whilſt SHAKESPEAR play'd,
And wonder'd at the Work herſelf had made?
Is this the Land, where, mindful of her charge
And office high, fair Freedom walk'd at large;
Where, finding in our Laws a ſure defence,
She mock'd at all reſtraints, but thoſe of Senſe;
Where health and honour trooping by her ſide,
She ſpread her ſacred empire far and wide;
Pointed the way, Affliction to beguile,
And bade the face of Sorrow wear a ſmile,
Bade thoſe, who dare obey the gen'rous call,
Enjoy her bleſſings, which GOD meant for all?
Is this the Land, where in ſome Tyrant's reign,

Thoſe wretches, who, ordain'd in Freedom's cauſe,
Gave up our liberties, and ſold our laws;
When Pow'r was taught by Meanneſs where to go,
Nor dar'd to love the Virtue of a foe;
When, like a lep'rous plague, from the foul head
To the foul heart her ſores Corruption ſpread,
Her iron arm when ſtern Oppreſſion rear'd,
And Virtue, from her broad baſe ſhaken, fear'd
The ſcourge of Vice; when, impotent and vain,
Poor Freedom bow'd the neck to Slav'ry's chain;
Is this the Land, where in thoſe worſt of times,
The hardy Poet rais'd his honeſt rimes
To dread rebuke, and bade controulment ſpeak
In guilty bluſhes on the villain's cheek,
Bade Pow'r turn pale, kept mighty rogues in awe,
And made them fear the Muſe, who fear'd not Law?

How do I laugh, when men of narrow ſouls,
Whom folly guides, and prejudice controuls;
Who, one dull drowſy track of buſineſs trod,
Worſhip their Mammon, and neglect their God;
Who, breathing by one muſty ſet of rules,
Dote from the birth, and are by ſyſtem fools;

Who,

Who, form'd to dullneſs from their very youth,
Lies of the day prefer to Goſpel truth,
Pick up their little knowledge from Reviews,
And lay out all their ſtock of faith in news:
How do I laugh, when Creatures, form'd like theſe,
Whom Reaſon ſcorns, and I ſhould bluſh to pleaſe,
Rail at all lib'ral arts, deem verſe a crime,
And hold not Truth, as Truth, if told in rime?

How do I laugh, when PUBLIUS, hoary groan
In zeal for SCOTLAND's welfare, and his own,
By ſlow degrees, and courſe of office, drawn
In mood and figure at the helm to yawn,
Too mean (the worſt of curſes Heav'n can ſend)
To have a foe, too proud to have a friend,
Erring by form, which Blockheads ſacred hold,
Ne'er making new faults, and ne'er mending old,
Rebukes my Spirit, bids the daring Muſe
Subjects more equal to her weakneſs chuſe;
Bids her frequent the haunts of humble ſwains,
Nor dare to traffick in ambitious ſtrains;
Bids her, indulging the poetic whim
In quaint-wrought Ode, or Sonnet pertly trim,

Along

Along the Church-way path complain with GRAY,
Or dance with MASON on the firſt of May?
" All ſacred is the name and pow'r of Kings,
" All States and Stateſmen are thoſe mighty Things
" Which, howſoe'er they out of courſe may roll,
" Were never made for Poets to controul."

Peace, Peace thou Dotard, nor thus vilely deem Of Sacred Numbers, and their pow'r blaſpheme;
I tell thee, Wretch, ſearch all creation round,
In Earth, in Heav'n, no Subject can be found
(Our God alone except) above whoſe weight
The Poet cannot riſe, and hold his State.
The bleſſed Saints above in numbers ſpeak
The praiſe of God, tho' there all praiſe is weak;
In Numbers here below the Bard ſhall teach
Virtue to ſoar beyond the Villain's reach;
Shall tear his lab'ring lungs, ſtrain his hoarſe throat,
And raiſe his voice beyond the trumpet's note,
Should an afflicted Country, aw'd by men
Of ſlaviſh principles, demand his pen.
This is a great, a glorious point of view,
Fit for an Engliſh Poet to purſue,

Undaunted to purſue, tho', in return,
His writings by the common Hangman burn.

How do I laugh, when men, by fortune plac'd
Above their Betters, and by rank diſgrac'd,
Who found their pride on titles which they ſtain,
And, mean themſelves, are of their Fathers vain,
Who would a bill of privilege prefer,
And treat a Poet like a Creditor,
The gen'rous ardor of the Muſe condemn,
And curſe the ſtorm they know muſt break on them.
" What, ſhall a reptile Bard, a wretch unknown,
" Without one badge of merit, but his own,
" Great Nobles laſh, and Lords, like common men,
" Smart from the vengeance of a Scribbler's pen?"

What's in this name of Lord, that I ſhould fear
To bring their vices to the public ear?
Flows not the honeſt blood of humble ſwains
Quick as the tide which ſwells a Monarch's veins?
Monarchs, who wealth and titles can beſtow,
Cannot make Virtues in ſucceſſion flow.
Would'ſt thou, proud Man, be ſafely plac'd above
The cenſure of the Muſe, deſerve her love,

ſt as thy Birth demands, as Nobles ought;
ook back, and by thy worthy Father taught,
'ho earn'd thoſe Honours, thou wert born to wear,
llow his ſteps, and be his Virtue's heir.
ıt if, regardleſs of the road to Fame,
ou ſtart aſide, and tread the paths of Shame,
ſuch thy life, that ſhould thy Sire ariſe,
he ſight of ſuch a Son would blaſt his eyes,
'ould make him curſe the hour which gave thee birth,
'ould drive him, ſhudd'ring, from the face of earth nce more, with ſhame and ſorrow, 'mongſt the dead endleſs night to hide his rev'rend head; ſuch thy life, tho' Kings had made thee more han ever King a ſcoundrel made before, ıy, to allow thy pride a deeper ſpring, ıo' God in vengeance had made thee a King,
ıking on Virtue's wing her daring flight,
he Muſe ſhould drag thee trembling to the light, obe thy foul wounds, and lay thy boſom bare o the keen queſtion of the ſearching air.

Gods! with what pride I ſee the titled ſlave, ho ſmarts beneath the ſtroke which Satire gave,

Aiming at eaſe, and with diſhoneſt art,
Striving to hide the feelings of his heart!
How do I laugh, when with affected air, (Scarce able thro' deſpite to keep his chair,
Whilſt on his trembling lip pale anger ſpeaks,
And the chaf'd blood flies mounting to his cheeks)
He talks of Conſcience, which good men ſecures
From all thoſe evil moments guilt endures,
And ſeems to laugh at thoſe, who pay regard
To the wild ravings of a frantic bard.
" SATIRE, whilſt envy and ill-humour ſway
" The mind of man, muſt always make her way;
" Nor to a boſom, with diſcretion fraught,
" Is all her malice worth a ſingle thought.
" The Wiſe have not the will, nor Fools the pow'r
" To ſtop her headſtrong courſe; within the hour,
" Left to herſelf, ſhe dies; oppoſing Strife,
" Gives her freſh vigour, and prolongs her life.
" All things her prey, and ev'ry man her aim,
" I can no patent for exemption claim,
" Nor would I wiſh to ſtop that harmleſs dart
" Which plays around, but cannot wound my heart;
" Tho' pointed at myſelf, be SATIRE free;
" To her 'tis pleaſure, and no pain to me."

Diſſembli

Diſſembling Wretch! hence to the Stoic ſchool,
And there amongſt thy breth'ren play the fool,
There, unrebuk'd, theſe wild, vain doctrines preach;
Lives there a man, whom SATIRE cannot reach?
Lives there a man, who calmly can ſtand by,
And ſee his conſcience ripp'd with ſteady eye?
When SATIRE flies abroad on Falſhood's wing,
Short is her life, and impotent her ſting;
But, when to Truth allied, the wound ſhe gives Sinks deep, and to remoteſt ages lives.
When in the tomb thy pamper'd fleſh ſhall rot,
And e'en by friends thy mem'ry be forgot,
Still ſhalt thou live, recorded for thy crimes,
Alive in her page, and ſtink to after-times.

Haſt thou no feeling yet? Come throw off pride,
And own thoſe paſſions which thou ſhalt not hide.
———, who from the moment of his birth,
Made human nature a reproach on earth,
Who never dar'd, nor wiſh'd behind to ſtay,
When Folly, Vice, and Meanneſs led the way,
Would bluſh, ſhould he be told, by Truth and Wit,
Thoſe actions, which he bluſh'd not to commit;

Men the moſt infamous are fond of fame,
And thoſe who fear not guilt, yet ſtart at ſhame.

But whither runs my zeal, whoſe rapid force,
Turning the brain, bears Reaſon from her courſe,
Carries me back to times, when Poets, bleſs'd
With courage, grac'd the Science they profeſs'd;
When they, in Honour rooted, firmly ſtood
The bad to puniſh, and reward the good;
When, to a flame by public Virtue wrought,
The Foes of Freedom they to juſtice brought,
And dar'd expoſe thoſe ſlaves who dar'd ſupport
A Tyrant plan, and call'd themſelves a Court.
Ah! What are Poets now? as ſlaviſh thoſe
Who deal in Verſe, as thoſe who deal in Proſe.
Is there an Author, ſearch the Kingdom round,
In whom true Worth, and real Spirit's found?
The Slaves of Bookſellers, or (doom'd by Fate
To baſer chains) vile penſioners of State;
Some, dead to ſhame, and of thoſe ſhackles proud
Which Honour ſcorns, for ſlav'ry roar aloud,
Others, half-palſied only, mutes become,
And what makes SMOLLETT write, makes JOHNSON dumb!

Wh

turns yon villain pale? why bends his eye abaſh'd, when MURPHY paſſes by?
ou ſage MURPHY for a blockhead take, ages war with Vice for Virtue's ſake?
o—like other Worldlings, you will find s his ſails, and catches ev'ry wind.
l the ſhock of int'reſt can't endure:
m a penſion then, and ſin ſecure.

ı laurell'd wreaths the flatt'rer's brows adorn, tue crouch, bid Vice exalt her horn, wards thrive, put Honeſty to flight, ıy ſhall prove, or try to prove it right.
ıou State-Juggler, ev'ry paltry art,
: the inmoſt cloſet of my heart,
hour't my Friend; by that baſe oath make way r breaſt; and flatter to betray;
thoſe tricks are vain, if wholeſome doubt the fraud, and points the Villain out, ıoſe who daily at my board are fed, ake them take my life who eat my bread;
thors for defence, for praiſe depend;
ı but well, and MURPHY is thy friend.

He, he ſhall ready ſtand with venal rimes,
To varniſh guilt, and conſecrate thy crimes,
To make Corruption in falſe colours ſhine,
And damn his own good name, to reſcue thine.

But, if thy niggard hands their gifts with-hold,
And Vice no longer rains down ſhow'rs of gold,
Expect no mercy; facts, well grounded, teach,
MURPHY, if not rewarded, will impeach.
What tho' each man of nice and juſter thought,
Shunning his ſteps, decrees, by Honour taught,
He ne'er can be a Friend, who ſtoops ſo low
To be the baſe betrayer of a foe;
What tho', with thine together link'd, his name
Muſt be with thine tranſmitted down to ſhame,
To ev'ry manly feeling callous grown,
Rather than not blaſt thine, he'll blaſt his own.

To ope the fountain, whence ſedition ſprings,
To ſlander Government, and libel Kings,
With Freedom's name to ſerve a preſent hour,
Tho' born and bred to arbitrary pow'r,
To talk of WILLIAM with inſidious art,
Whilſt a vile STUART's lurking in his heart,

And,

And, whilſt mean Envy rears her loathſome head,
Flatt'ring the living, to abuſe the dead,
Where is SHEBBEARE? O, let not foul reproach,
Travelling thither in a City Coach,
The Pill'ry dare to name; the whole intent
Of that Parade was Fame, not Puniſhment,
And that old, ſtaunch Whig BEARDMORE ſtanding by
Can in full Court give that report the lye.

With rude unnat'ral jargon to ſupport,
Half Scotch, half Engliſh, a declining Court,
To make moſt glaring contraries unite,
And prove, beyond diſpute, that black is white,
To make firm Honour tamely league with Shame,
Make Vice and Virtue differ but in name,
To prove that Chains and Freedom are but one,
That to be ſav'd muſt mean to be undone,
Is there not GUTHRIE? Who, like him, can call
All Oppoſites to proof, and conquer all?
He calls forth living waters from the rock;
He calls forth children from the barren ſtock;
He, far beyond the ſprings of Nature led,
Makes Women bring forth after they are dead;

He,

He, on a curious, new, and happy plan,
In Wedlock's ſacred bands joins Man to Man;
And, to complete the whole, moſt ſtrange, but true,
By ſome rare magic, makes them fruitful too,
Whilſt from their loins, in the due courſe of years,
Flows the rich blood of GUTHRIE's Engliſh Peers.

Doſt thou contrive ſome blacker deed of ſhame,
Something which Nature ſhudders but to name,
Something which makes the Soul of man retreat,
And the life-blood run backward to her ſeat?
Doſt thou contrive for ſome baſe private end,
Some ſelfiſh view, to hang a truſting friend,
To lure him on, e'en to his parting breath,
And promiſe life, to work him ſurer death?
Grown old in villainy, and dead to grace,
Hell in his heart, and TYBURNE in his face;
Behold, a Parſon at thy Elbow ſtands,
Low'ring damnation, and with open hands
Ripe to betray his Saviour for reward;
The Atheiſt Chaplain of an Atheiſt Lord.

Bred to the Church, and for the gown decreed,
'Ere it was known that I ſhould learn to read;

Tho'

Tho' that was nothing, for my Friends, who knew
What mighty Dullneſs of itſelf could do,
Never deſign'd me for a working Prieſt,
But hop'd, I ſhould have been a DEAN at leaſt;
Condemn'd (like many more, and worthier men,
To whom I pledge the ſervice of my pen),
Condemn'd (whilſt proud, and pamper'd Sons of Lawn, Cramm'd to the throat, in lazy plenty yawn)
In pomp of rev'rend begg'ry to appear,
To pray, and ſtarve on forty pounds a year;
My Friends, who never felt the galling load,
Lament that I forſook the Packhorſe road,
Whilſt Virtue to my conduct witneſs bears
In throwing off that gown, which FRANCIS wears.

What Creature's that, ſo very pert and prim;
So very full of foppery, and whim;
So gentle, yet ſo briſk; ſo wond'rous ſweet,
So fit to prattle at a Lady's feet,
Who looks, as he the Lord's rich vineyard trod,
And by his Garb appears a man of God?
Truſt not to looks, nor credit outward ſhow;
The villain lurks beneath the caſſock'd Beau;

That's

That's an Informer; what avails the name?
Suffice it that the wretch from SODOM came.

His tongue is deadly—from his preſence run,
Unleſs thy rage would wiſh to be undone.
No ties can hold him, no affection bind,
And Fear alone reſtrains his coward mind;
Free him from that, no Monſter is ſo fell,
Nor is ſo ſure a blood-hound found in hell.
His ſilken ſmiles, his hypocritic air,
His meak demeanour, plauſible and fair,
Are only worn to pave Fraud's eaſier way,
And make gull'd Virtue fall a ſurer prey.
Attend his Church—his plan of doctrine view—
The Preacher is a Chriſtian, dull, but true;
But when the hallow'd hour of preaching's o'er,
That plan of doctrine's never thought of more;
CHRIST is laid by neglected on the ſhelf,
And the vile Prieſt is Goſpel to himſelf.

By CLELAND tutor'd, and with BLACOW bred, (BLACOW, whom by a brave reſentment led,
OXFORD, if OXFORD had not ſunk in fame,
Ere this, had damn'd to everlaſting ſhame)

Their

Their ſteps he follows, and their crimes partakes,
To Virtue loſt, to Vice alone he wakes,
Moſt luſcioufly declaims 'gainſt luſcious themes,
And, whilſt he rails at blaſphemy, blaſphemes.

Are theſe the Arts, which Policy ſupplies?
Are theſe the ſteps, by which grave Churchmen riſe?
Forbid it, Heav'n; or, ſhould it turn out ſo,
Let me, and mine, continue mean and low.
Such be their Arts, whom Intereſt controuls;
KIDGELL and I have free and honeſt ſouls.
We ſcorn Preferment which is gain'd by Sin,
And will, tho' poor without, have peace within.

Of Hell is certain, on whose lids
That worm, which never dies, forbids
Sweet Sleep to fall, Come and Behold,
Whilst Envy makes your blood run cold,
Behold, by pitiless Conscience led,
So JUSTICE wills, that holy bed,
Where PEACE her full dominion keeps,
And Innocence with HOLLAND sleeps.

Bid Terror, posting on the wind,
Affray the spirits of mankind,
Bid Earthquakes, heaving for a vent,
Rive their concealing continent,
And, forcing an untimely birth
Thro' the vast bowels of the earth,
Endeavour, in her monstrous womb,
At once all Nature to entomb;
Bid all that's horrible and dire,
All that man hates and fears, conspire
To make night hideous, as they can;
Still is thy Sleep, Thou Virtuous Man,
Pure as the Thoughts, which in thy breast
Inhabit, and ensure thy rest;

Still ſhall thy AYLIFF, taught, tho' late,
Thy friendly juſtice in his fate,
Turn'd to a guardian Angel, ſpread
Sweet dreams of comfort round thy head.

Dark was the Night, by Fate decreed
For the contrivance of a deed
More black than common, which might make
This land from her foundations ſhake,
Might tear up Freedom from the root,
Deſtroy a WILKES, and fix a BUTE.

Deep Horror held her wide domain;
The ſky in ſullen drops of rain
Forewept the morn, and thro' the air,
Which, op'ning, laid its boſom bare,
Loud Thunders roll'd, and Light'ning ſtream'd;
The Owl at Freedom's window ſcream'd;
The Screech-Owl, prophet dire, whoſe breath
Brings ſickneſs, and whoſe note is death;
The Church-Yard teem'd, and from the tomb,
All ſad and ſilent, thro' the gloom,
The Ghoſts of Men, in former times
Whoſe Public Virtues were their crimes,

Indignant

Indignant ſtalk'd; Sorrow and Rage
Blank'd their pale cheek; in his own age
The prop of Freedom, HAMPDEN there
Felt after death the gen'rous care;
SIDNEY by grief from Heav'n was kept,
And for his brother Patriot wept;
All Friends of LIBERTY, when Fate
Prepar'd to ſhorten WILKES's date,
Heav'd, deeply hurt, the heart-felt groan,
And knew that wound to be their own.

Hail, LIBERTY! a glorious word,
In other countries ſcarcely heard,
Or heard but as a thing of courſe,
Without or Energy or Force;
Here felt, enjoy'd, ador'd ſhe ſprings,
Far, far beyond the reach of Kings,
Freſh blooming from our Mother Earth;
With Pride and Joy ſhe owns her birth
Deriv'd from us, and in return
Bids in our breaſts her Genius burn;
Bids us with all thoſe bleſſings live
Which LIBERTY alone can give,

Or nobly with that Spirit die,
Which makes Death more than Victory.

Hail thoſe Old Patriots, on whoſe tongues
Perſuaſion in the Senate hung,
Whilſt They the ſacred Cauſe maintain'd!
Hail thoſe Old Chiefs, to Honour train'd,
Who ſpread, when other methods fail'd,
War's bloody banner, and prevail'd!
Shall Men like theſe unmention'd ſleep
Promiſcuous with the common heap,
And (Gratitude forbid the crime)
Be carried down the ſtream of Time?
In Shoals, unnotic'd and forgot,
On LETHE's ſtream, like flags, to rot?
No—they ſhall live, and each fair name,
Recorded in the book of Fame,
Founded on Honour's baſis, laſt
As the round Earth to ages laſt.
Some Virtues vaniſh with our breath,
Virtue like this lives after death.
Old Time himſelf, his ſcythe thrown by,
Himſelf loſt in Eternity,

An everlaſting crown ſhall twine
To make a WILKES and SIDNEY join.

But ſhould ſome ſlave-got Villain dare
Chains for his Country to prepare,
And, by his birth to ſlavery broke,
Make her to feel the galling yoke,
May he be evermore accurs'd,
Amongſt bad men be rank'd the worſt;
May he be ſtill himſelf, and ſtill
Go on in Vice, and perfect Ill;
May his broad crimes each day increaſe,
'Till he can't Live, nor Die in Peace;
May he be plung'd ſo deep in ſhame
That Satan mayn't endure his name,
And hear, ſcarce crawling on the earth,
His children curſe him for their birth;
May LIBERTY, beyond the grave,
Ordain him to be ſtill a ſlave,
Grant him what here he moſt requires,
And damn him with his own deſires!

But ſhould ſome Villain, in ſupport
And zeal for a deſpairing Court,

Placing

Placing in Craft his confidence,
And making Honour a pretence
To do a deed of deepeſt ſhame,
Whilſt filthy lucre is his aim;
Should ſuch a Wretch, with ſword or knife,
Contrive to practiſe 'gainſt the life
Of One, who honour'd thro' the land,
For Freedom made a glorious ſtand,
Whoſe chief, perhaps his only crime,
Is (if plain Truth at ſuch a time
May dare her ſentiments to tell)
That He his Country loves too well;
May He—but words are all too weak
The feelings of my heart to ſpeak—
May He—O for a noble curſe
Which might his very marrow pierce—
The general contempt engage,
And be the MARTIN of his age.

BOOK II.

DEEP in the boſom of a wood,
Out of the road, a Temple ſtood;
Antient, and much the worſe for wear,
It call'd aloud for quick repair,
And, tottering from ſide to ſide,
Menac'd deſtruction far and wide,
Nor able ſeem'd, unleſs made ſtronger,
To hold out four or five years longer.
Four hundred pillars, from the ground
Riſing in order, moſt unſound,

Some

Some rotten to the heart aloof
Seem'd to ſupport the tott'ring roof,
But to inſpection nearer laid,
Inſtead of giving wanted aid.

The Structure, rare and curious, made
By Men moſt famous in their trade,
A work of years, admir'd by all,
Was ſuffer'd into duſt to fall,
Or, juſt to make it hang together,
And keep off the effects of weather,
Was patch'd and patch'd from time to time
By wretches, whom it were a crime
A crime, which Art would treaſon hold,
To mention with thoſe names of old.

Builders, who had the pile ſurvey'd,
And thoſe not Flitcrofts in their trade,
Doubted (the wiſe hand in a doubt Merely ſometimes to hand her out) Whether (like Churches in a brief,
Taught wiſely to obtain relief
Thro' Chancery, who gives her fees
To this and other Charities)

It muſt not, in all parts unſound,
Be ripp'd, and pull'd down to the ground;
Whether (tho' after-ages ne'er Shall raiſe a building to compare)
Art, if they ſhould their Art employ,
Meant to preſerve, might not deſtroy.
As human bodies, worn away,
Batter'd and haſting to decay,
Bidding the pow'r of Art deſpair,
Cannot thoſe very medicines bear,
Which, and which only can reſtore,
And make them healthy as before.

To LIBERTY, whoſe gracious ſmile
Shed peace and plenty o'er the Iſle,
Our grateful Anceſtors, her plain
But faithful Children, rais'd this ſane.

Full in the Front, ſtretch'd out in length,
Where Nature put forth all her ſtrength
In Spring eternal, lay a plain,
Where our brave fathers us'd to train
Their Sons to Arms, to teach the Art
Of War, and ſteel the infant heart.

LABOUR,

LABOUR, their hardy nurſe, when young,
Their joints had knit, their nerves had ſtrung;
ABSTINENCE, foe declar'd to death,
Had, from the time they firſt drew breath,
The beſt of doctors, with plain food,
Kept pure the channel of their blood;
HEALTH in their cheeks bade colour riſe,
And GLORY ſparkled in their eyes.

The inſtruments of Huſbandry,
As in contempt, were all thrown by,
And, flattering a manly pride,
War's keener tools their place ſupplied.
Their arrows to the head they drew;
Swift to the point their javelins flew;
They graſp'd the ſword, they ſhook the ſpear;
Their Fathers felt a pleaſing fear,
And even COURAGE, ſtanding by,
Scarcely beheld with ſteady eye.
Each Stripling, leſſon'd by his Sire,
Knew when to cloſe, when to retire,
When near at hand, when from afar
To fight, and was Himſelf a War.

Their

Their Wives, their Mothers all around,
Careleſs of order, on the ground,
Breath'd forth to Heav'n the pious vow,
And for a Son's or Huſband's brow,
With eager fingers Laurel wove;
Laurel, which in the ſacred grove,
Planted by LIBERTY, they find,
The brows of Conquerors to bind,
To give them Pride and Spirits, fit
To make a world in arms ſubmit.

What raptures did the boſom fire
Of the young, rugged, peaſant Sire,
When, from the toil of mimic fight,
Returning with return of Night,
He ſaw his babe reſign the breaſt,
And, ſmiling, ſtroke thoſe arms in jeſt,
With which hereafter he ſhall make
The proudeſt heart in GALLIA quake!

Gods! with what joy, what honeſt pride,
Did each fond, wiſhing, ruſtic Bride,
Behold her manly ſwain return!
How did her love-ſick boſom burn,

Tho' on Parades he was not bred,
Nor wore the livery of red,
When, Pleaſure height'ning all her charms,
She ſtrain'd her Warrior in her arms,
And begg'd, whilſt Love and Glory fire,
A Son, a Son juſt like his Sire!

Such were the men in former times,
Ere Luxury had made our crimes
Our bitter Puniſhment, who bore
Their terrors to a foreign ſhore;
Such were the men, who free from dread,
By EDWARDS and by HENRYES led,
Spread, like a torrent ſwell'd with rains,
O'er haughty GALLIA's trembling plains;
Such were the Men, when lift of Pow'r,
To work him woe, in evil hour
Debauch'd the Tyrant from thoſe ways,
On which a King ſhould found his praiſe,
When ſtern OPPRESSION, hand in hand
With PRIDE, ſtalk'd proudly thro' the land;
When weeping JUSTICE was miſled
From her fair courſe, and MERCY dead;

Such

Such were the Men, in Virtue ſtrong,
Who dar'd not ſee their Country's wrong,
Who left the mattock, and the ſpade,
And, in the robes of War array'd,
In their rough arms, departing, took Their helpleſs babes, and with a look
Stern and determin'd, ſwore to ſee
Thoſe babes no more, or ſee them free;
Such were the Men whom Tyrant PRIDE
Could never faſten to his ſide
By threats or bribes, who, Freemen born,
Chains, tho' of gold, beheld with ſcorn;
Who, free from ev'ry ſervile awe,
Could never be divorc'd from Law,
From that broad gen'ral Law, which Senſe
Made for the general defence;
Could never yield to partial ties
Which from dependant ſtations riſe;
Could never be to Slav'ry led,
For PROPERTY was at their head;
Such were the Men in days of yore,
Who, call'd by LIBERTY, before
Her Temple on the ſacred green,
In martial paſtimes oft were ſeen—

Now ſeen no longer—in their ſtead,
To lazineſs and vermin bred,
A Race who, ſtrangers to the cauſe
Of Freedom, live by other laws,
On other motives fight, a prey
To intereſt, and ſlaves for pay.
VALOUR, how glorious on a plan
Of Honour founded, leads their Van;
DISCRETION, free from taint of fear,
Cool, but reſolv'd, brings up their rear,
DISCRETION, VALOUR's better half;
DEPENDANCE holds the Gen'ral's Staff.

In plain and home-ſpun garb array'd,
Not for vain ſhew, but ſervice made,
In a green flouriſhing old age,
Not damn'd yet with an Equipage,
In rules of Porterage untaught,
SIMPLICITY, not worth a groat,
For years had kept the Temple door;
Full on his breaſt a glaſs he wore,
Thro' which his boſom open lay
To ev'ry one that paſs'd that way.

Now turn'd adrift—with humbler face,
But prouder heart, his vacant place
CORRUPTION fills, and bears the key;
No entrance now without a fee.

With belly round, and full fat face,
Which on the houſe reflected grace,
Full of good fare, and honeſt glee,
The Steward HOSPITALITY,
Old WELCOME ſmiling by his ſide,
A good, old Servant, often tried,
And faithful found, who kept in view
His Lady's fame and int'reſt too,
Who made each heart with joy rebound,
Yet never run her State a-ground,
Was turn'd off, or (which word I find
Is more in modern uſe) reſign'd.

Half-ſtarv'd, half-ſtarving others, bred
In beggary, with carrion fed,
Deteſted, and deteſting all,
Made up of Avarice and Gall,
Boaſting great thrift, yet waſting more
Than ever Steward did before,

Succeeded One, who, to engage
The praiſe of an exhauſted Age,
Aſſum'd a name of high degree,
And call'd himſelf OECONOMY.

Within the Temple, full in ſight,
Where, without ceaſing, day and night,
The Workmen toil'd, where LABOUR bar'd
His brawny arm, where ART prepar'd,
In regular and even rows,
Her types, a Printing-Preſs aroſe;
Each Workman knew his taſk, and each
Was honeſt and expert as LEACH.

Hence LEARNING ſtruck a deeper root,
And SCIENCE brought forth riper fruit;
Hence LOYALTY receiv'd ſupport,
Even when baniſh'd from the Court;
Hence GOVERNMENT gain'd ſtrength, and hence
RELIGION ſought, and found defence;
Hence ENGLAND's faireſt fame aroſe,
And LIBERTY ſubdu'd her foes.

On

On a low, ſimple, turf-made throne
Rais'd by Allegiance, ſcarcely known
From her attendants, glad to be
Pattern of that Equality
She wiſh'd to all, ſo far as cou'd
Safely conſiſt with ſocial good,
The GODDESS ſat; around her head
A chearful radiance GLORY ſpread;
COURAGE, a Youth of royal race,
Lovelily ſtern, poſſeſs'd a place
On her left-hand, and on her right
Sat HONOUR, cloath'd with robes of Light;
Before her MAGNA CHARTA lay,
Which ſome great Lawyer, of his day
The PRATT, was offic'd to explain,
And make the baſis of her reign;
PEACE, crown'd with Olive, to her breaſt
Two ſmiling, twin-born infants preſt;
At her feet couching, WAR was laid,
And with a brindled Lion play'd;
JUSTICE and MERCY, hand in hand,
Joint Guardians of the happy land,
Together held their mighty charge,
And TRUTH walk'd all about at large;

HEALTH for the royal troop the feaſt
Prepar'd, and VIRTUE was High Prieſt.

Such was the fame our Goddeſs bore,
Her Temple ſuch, in days of yore.
What changes ruthleſs Time preſents!
Behold her ruin'd battlements,
Her walls decay'd, her nodding ſpires,
Her altars broke, her dying fires,
Her name deſpis'd, her Prieſts deſtroy'd,
Her friends diſgrac'd, her foes employ'd,
Herſelf (by Miniſterial Arts
Depriv'd e'en of the people's hearts,
Whilſt They, to work her ſurer woe,
Feign her to Monarchy a foe)
Exil'd by grief, ſelf-doom'd to dwell
With ſome poor Hermit in a cell,
Or, that retirement tedious grown,
If ſhe walks forth, ſhe walks unknown,
Hooted, and pointed at with ſcorn,
As One in ſome ſtrange Country born.

Behold a rude and ruffian race,
A band of ſpoilers, ſeize her place;

With looks, which might the heart diſ-ſeat,
And make life ſound a quick retreat,
To rapine from the cradle bred,
A Staunch, Old Blood-hound at their head,
Who, free from Virtue and from Awe,
Knew none but the bad part of Law,
They rov'd at large; each on his breaſt
Mark'd with a Grey-hound, ſtood conſeſt.
CONTROULMENT waited on their nod
High-weilding PERSECUTION's rod,
CONFUSION follow'd at their heels,
And a caſt Stateſman held the Seals,
Thoſe Seals, for which he dear ſhall pay,
When awful JUSTICE takes her day.

The Printers ſaw—they ſaw and fled—
SCIENCE, declining, hung her head,
PROPERTY in deſpair appear'd,
And for herſelf deſtruction fear'd;
Whilſt, under-foot, the rude ſlaves trod
The works of men, and word of God,
Whilſt, cloſe behind, on many a book,
In which he never deigns to look,

Which

Which he did not, nay—could not read,
A bold, bad man (by pow'r decreed
For that bad end, who in the dark Scorn'd to do miſchief) ſet his mark
In the full day, the mark of Hell,
And on the Goſpel ſtamp'd an L.

LIBERTY fled, her Friends withdrew,
Her Friends, a faithful, choſen few;
HONOUR in grief threw up, and SHAME,
Cloathing herſelf with HONOUR's name,
Uſurp'd his ſtation; on the throne,
Which LIBERTY once call'd her own, (Gods, that ſuch mighty ills ſhould ſpring,
Under ſo great, ſo good a King,
So Lov'd, ſo Loving, thro' the arts
Of Stateſmen, curs'd with wicked hearts!)
For ev'ry darker purpoſe fit,
Behold in triumph STATE-CRAFT ſit.

END OF THE SECOND BOOK.

THE DUELLIST.

BOOK III.

AH me! what mighty perils wait,
The man who meddles with a State,
Whether to ſtrengthen, or oppoſe!
Falſe are his friends, and firm his foes.
How muſt his Soul, once ventur'd in,
Plunge blindly on from ſin to ſin!
What toils he ſuffers, what diſgrace,
To get, and then to keep a place!
How often, whether wrong or right,
Muſt he in jeſt or earneſt fight,
Riſquing for thoſe both life and limb,
Who would not riſque one groat for him!

Under

Under the Temple lay a Cave;
Made by ſome guilty, coward ſlave,
Whoſe actions fear'd rebuke, a maze
Of intricate and winding ways,
Not to be found without a clue;
One Paſſage only, known to few,
In paths direct led to a Cell,
Where FRAUD in ſecret lov'd to dwell,
With all her tools and ſlaves about her,
Nor fear'd leſt HONESTY ſhould rout her.

In a dark corner, ſhunning ſight
Of Man, and ſhrinking from the light,
One dull, dim taper thro' the Cell
Glimm'ring, to make more horrible
The face of darkneſs, ſhe prepares,
Working unſeen, all kinds of ſnares,
With curious, but deſtructive art;
Here, thro' the eye to catch the heart,
Gay Stars their tinſel beams afford,
Neat artifice to trap a Lord;
There, fit for all whom Folly bred,
Wave Plumes of Feathers for the head;

Garters

Garters the Hag contrives to make,
Which, as it ſeems, a babe might break,
But which ambitious Madmen feel
More firm and ſure than chains of ſteel;
Which, ſlipp'd juſt underneath the knee,
Forbid a Freeman to be free.
Purſes ſhe knew (did ever curſe Travel more ſure than in a purſe?)
Which, by ſome ſtrange and magic bands
Enſlave the ſoul, and tie the hands.

Here FLATT'RY, eldeſt born of GUILE,
Weaves with rare ſkill the ſilken ſmile,
The courtly cringe, the ſupple bow,
The private ſqueeze, the Levee vow,
With which, no ſtrange or recent caſe,
Fools in deceive Fools out of place.

CORRUPTION (who, in former times,
Thro' fear or ſhame conceal'd her crimes,
And what ſhe did, contriv'd to do it
So that the Public might not view it)
Preſumptuous grown, unfit was held
For their dark councils, and expell'd,

Since

Since in the day her buſineſs might
Be done as ſafe as in the night.

Her eye down-bending to the ground,
Planning ſome dark and deadly wound,
Holding a dagger, on which ſtood,
All freſh and reeking, drops of blood,
Bearing a lanthorn, which of yore,
By TREASON borrow'd, GUY FAWKES bore,
By which, ſince they improv'd in trade,
Exciſemen have their lanthorns made,
ASSASSINATION, her whole mind,
Blood-thirſting, on her arm reclin'd.
DEATH, grinning, at her elbow ſtood,
And held forth inſtruments of blood,
Vile inſtruments, which cowards chuſe,
But Men of Honour dare not uſe;
Around his Lordſhip and his Grace,
Both qualified for ſuch a place,
With many a FORBES, and many a DUN,
Each a reſolv'd, and pious Son,
Wait her high bidding; Each prepar'd
As ſhe around her orders ſhar'd,

Proof

Proof 'gainſt remorſe, to run, to fly,
And bid the deſtin'd victim die,
Poſting on Villainy's black wing,
Whether He Patriot is, or King.

OPPRESSION, willing to appear
An object of our love, not fear,
Or at the moſt a rev'rend awe
To breed, uſurp'd the garb of LAW.
A Book ſhe held, on which her eyes
Were deeply fix'd, whence ſeem'd to riſe
Joy in her breaſt; a Book, of might Moſt wonderful, which black to white
Could turn, and without help of laws,
Could make the worſe the better cauſe.
She read, by flatt'ring hopes deceiv'd,
She wiſh'd, and what ſhe with'd, believ'd,
To make that Book for ever ſtand
The rule of wrong through all the land;
On the back, fair and worthy note,
At large was MAGNA CHARTA wrote,
But turn your eye within, and read,
A bitter leſſon, N——'s CREED.

Ready,

Ready, e'en with a look, to run,
Faſt as the courſers of the Sun,
To worry Virtue, at her hand
Two half-ſtarv'd Greyhounds took their ſtand.
A curious model, cut in wood,
Of a moſt antient Caſtle ſtood
Full in her view; the gates were barr'd,
And Soldiers on the watch kept guard;
In the front, openly, in black
Was wrote, The TOW'R, but on the back,
Mark'd with a Secretary's ſeal,
In bloody Letters, The BASTILE.

Around a Table, fully bent
On miſchief of moſt black intent
Deeply determin'd, that their reign
Might longer laſt, to work the bane
Of one firm Patriot, whoſe heart, tied
To Honour, all their pow'r defied,
And brought thoſe actions into light
They wiſh'd to have conceal'd in Night.
Begot, Born, Bred to infamy,
A Privy-Council ſat of THREE;

Great

Great were their names, of high repute
And favour thro' the land of BUTE.

The FIRST (entitled to the place
Of Honour both by Gown and Grace,
Who never let occaſion ſlip
To take right hand of fellowſhip,
And was ſo proud, that ſhould he meet
The twelve Apoſtles in the ſtreet,
He'd turn his noſe up at them all,
And ſhove his Saviour from the wall;
Who was ſo mean (Meanneſs and Pride Still go together ſide by ſide)
That he would cringe, and creep, be civil,
And hold a ſtirrup for the Devil,
If in a journey to his mind,
He'd let him mount, and ride behind;
Who baſely fawn'd thro' all his life,
For Patrons firſt, then for a Wife.
Wrote Dedications which muſt make
The heart of ev'ry Chriſtian quake;
Made one Man equal to, or more
Than God, then left him, as before

His God he left, and drawn by Pride, Shifted about to t'other ſide)
Was by his ſire a Parſon made,
Merely to give the Boy a trade;
But he himſelf was thereto drawn
By ſome faint omens of the Lawn,
And on the truly Chriſtian plan,
To make himſelf a Gentleman,
A title, in which form array'd him,
Tho' Fate ne'er thought on't when ſhe made him.

The Oaths he took, 'tis very true,
But took them, as all wiſe men do,
With an intent, if things ſhould turn,
Rather to temporize, than burn.
Goſpel and Loyalty were made
To ſerve the purpoſes of trade;
Religion's are but paper ties,
Which bind the fool, but which the wiſe,
Such idle notions far above,
Draw on and off, juſt like a glove;
All Gods, all Kings (let his great aim
Be anſwer'd) were to him the ſame.

A Curate firſt, he read and read,
And laid in, whilſt he ſhould have fed
The ſouls of his neglected flock,
Of reading ſuch a mighty ſtock,
That he o'ercharg'd the weary brain
With more than ſhe could well contain,
More than ſhe was with Spirits fraught
To turn, and methodize to Thought,
And which, like ill-digeſted food,
To humours turn'd, and not to blood.
Brought up to London, from the plow
And Pulpit, how to make a bow
He try'd to learn, he grew polite,
And was the Poet's Paraſite.
With Wits converſing (and Wits then Were to be found 'mongſt Noblemen)
He caught, or would have caught the flame,
And would be nothing, or the fame;
He drank with Drunkards, liv'd with Sinners,
Herded with Infidels for dinners,
With ſuch an Emphaſis and Grace
Blaſphem'd, that POTTER kept not pace;
He, in the higheſt reign of noon,
Bawl'd bawdry ſongs to a Pſalm Tune,

Liv'd with Men infámous and vile,
Truck'd his ſalvation for a ſmile,
To catch their humour caught their plan,
And laugh'd at God to laugh with Man,
Prais'd them, when living, in each breath,
And damn'd their mem'ries after death.

To prove his Faith, which all admit
Is at leaſt equal to his Wit,
And make himſelf a Man of note,
He in defence of Scripture wrote;
So long he wrote, and long about it,
That e'en Believers 'gan to doubt it;
He wrote too of the Inward Light,
Tho' no one knew how he came by't,
And of that influencing Grace,
Which in his life ne'er found a place;
He wrote too of the Holy Ghoſt,
Of whom, no more than doth a poſt
He knew, nor, ſhould an Angel ſhew him,
Would He or know, or chuſe to know him.

Next (for he knew 'twixt ev'ry Science
There was a natural alliance)

He

He wrote, t' advance his Maker's praiſe,
Comments on rimes, and notes on plays,
And with an all-ſufficient air
Plac'd himſelf in the Critic's chair,
Uſurp'd o'er Reaſon full dominion,
And govern'd merely by opinion.
At length dethron'd, and kept in awe
By one plain ſimple Man of Law,
He arm'd dead Friends, to Vengeance true,
T' abuſe the Man they never knew.

Examine ſtrictly all mankind,
Moſt Characters are mix'd we find,
And Vice and Virtue take their turn
In the ſame breaſt to beat and burn.
Our Prieſt was an exception here,
Nor did one ſpark of Grace appear,
Not one dull, dim ſpark in his ſoul;
Vice, glorious Vice poſſeſs'd the whole,
And, in her ſervice truly warm,
He was in ſin moſt uniform.

Injurious Satire, own at leaſt
One ſniveling Virtue in the Prieſt,

One ſniveling Virtue which is plac'd,
They ſay, in or about the waiſt,
Call'd CHASTITY; the Prudiſh Dame
Knows it at large by Virtue's name.
To this his Wife (and in theſe days Wives ſeldom without reaſon praiſe)
Fears evidence—then calls her child,
And ſwears that TOM was vaſtly wild.

Ripen'd by a long courſe of years,
He great and perfect now appears.
In ſhape ſcarce of the human kind;
A Man, without a manly mind;
No huſband, tho' he's truly wed;
Tho' on his knees a child is bred,
No Father; injur'd, without end
A Foe; and, tho' oblig'd, no Friend;
A Heart, which Virtue ne'er diſgrac'd;
A Head, where Learning runs to waſte;
A Gentleman well-bred, if breeding
Reſts in the article of reading;
A Man of this World, for the next
Was ne'er included in his text;

A Judge of Genius, tho' confeſt
With not one ſpark of Genius bleſt;
Amongſt the firſt of Critics plac'd,
Tho' free from ev'ry taint of Taſte;
A Chriſtian without faith or works,
As he would be a Turk 'mongſt Turks;
A great Divine, as Lords agree,
Without the leaſt Divinity;
To crown all, in declining age,
Enflam'd with Church and Party-rage,
Behold him, full and perfect quite,
A falſe Saint, and true Hypocrite.

Next ſat a Lawyer, often try'd
In perilous extremes; when Pride
And Pow'r, all wild and trembling, ſtood,
Nor dar'd to tempt the raging flood;
This bold, bad Man aroſe to view,
And gave his hand to help them through,
Steel'd 'gainſt Compaſſion, as they paſt,
He ſaw poor Freedom breathe her laſt,
He ſaw her ſtruggle, heard her groan,
He ſaw her helpleſs and alone,

Hath he ta'en briefs on falſe pretence,
And undertaken the defence
Of truſting Fools, whom in the end
He meant to ruin, not defend?
How often, e'en in open Court,
Hath the wretch made his ſhame his ſport,
And laugh'd off, with a Villain's eaſe,
Throwing up briefs, and keeping fees?
Such things, as, tho' to roguery bred,
Had ſtruck a little Villain dead.

Cauſes, whatever their import,
He undertakes, to ſerve a Court;
For he by heart this rule had got,
Pow'r can effect, what Law cannot.

Fools he forgives, but rogues he fears;
If Genius, yok'd with Worth, appears,
His weak ſoul ſickens at the ſight,
And ſtrives to plunge them down in night.

So loud he talks, ſo very loud,
He is an Angel with the crowd,
Whilſt he makes Juſtice hang her head,
And Judges turn from pale to red.

Bid all that Nature, on a plan
Moſt intimate, makes dear to Man,
All that with grand and gen'ral ties
Binds good and bad, the Fool and Wiſe,
Knock at his Heart; They knock in vain,
No entrance there ſuch Suitors gain.
Bid kneeling Kings forſake the throne;
Bid at his feet his Country groan;
Bid Liberty ſtretch out her hands;
Religion plead her ſtronger bands;
Bid Parents, Children, Wife, and Friends;
If they come thwart his private ends,
Unmov'd he hears the gen'ral call,
And bravely tramples on them all.

Who will, for him, may cant and whine,
And let weak Conſcience with her line
Chalk out their ways; ſuch ſtarving rules
Are only fit for coward fools,
Fellows who credit what Prieſts tell,
And tremble at the thoughts of Hell;
His Spirit dares contend with Grace,
And meets Damnation face to face.

Such

Such was our Lawyer; by his ſide
In all bad qualities allied,
In all bad Counſels, ſat a Third,
By birth a Lord; O ſacred word!
O word moſt ſacred, whence Men get
A Priviledge to run in debt,
Whence They at large exemption claim
From Satire, and her ſervant Shame;
Whence They, depriv'd of all her force,
Forbid bold Truth to hold her courſe.

Conſult his perſon, dreſs, and air,
He ſeems, which ſtrangers well might ſwear,
The Maſter, or by Courteſy,
The Captain of a Colliery.
Look at his viſage, and agree
Half-Hang'd he ſeems, juſt from the Tree
Eſcap'd; a Rope may ſometimes break,
Or Men be cut down by miſtake.

He hath not Virtue, (in the ſchool
Of Vice bred up) to live by rule, Nor hath he Senſe (which none can doubt Who know the Man) to live without.

His

His life is a continu'd ſcene
Of all that's infamous and mean;
He knows not change, unleſs, grown nice
And delicate, from vice to vice;
Nature, deſign'd him, in a rage,
To be the WHARTON of his age,
But, having giv'n all the Sin,
Forgot to put the Virtues in.
To run a horſe, to make a match,
To revel deep, to roar a catch,
To knock a tott'ring watchman down,
To ſweat a woman of the Town,
By fits to keep the Peace, or break it,
In turn to give a Pox, or take it,
He is, in faith, moſt excellent,
And in the Word's moſt full intent,
A true Choice Spirit we admit;
With Wits a Fool, with Fools a Wit;
Hear him but talk, and You would ſwear
OBSCENITY herſelf was there;
And that PROPHANENESS had made choice,
By way of Trump, to uſe his Voice;
That, in all mean and low things great,
He had been bred at Billingſgate,

And

And that, aſcending to the earth
Before the ſeaſon of his birth,
BLASPHEMY, making way and room,
Had mark'd him in his Mother's womb;
Too honeſt (for the worſt of men
In forms are honeſt now and then)
Not to have, in the uſual way,
His Bills ſent in; Too great, to pay;
Too proud to ſpeak to, if he meets,
The honeſt Tradeſman whom he cheats;
Too infamous to have a friend,
Too bad for bad men to commend,
Or Good to name; beneath whoſe weight
Earth groans; who hath been ſpar'd by Fate
Only to ſhew, on Mercy's plan,
How far and long God bears with Man.

Such were the THREE, who, mocking ſleep,
At Midnight ſat, in Counſel deep,
Plotting deſtruction 'gainſt a head,
Whoſe Wiſdom could not be miſled;
Plotting deſtruction 'gainſt a heart,
Which ne'er from honour would depart.

" Is He not rank'd amongſt our foes?
" Hath not his Spirit dar'd oppoſe
" Our deareſt meaſures, made our name
" Stand forward on the roll of Shame?
" Hath he not won the vulgar tribes,
" By ſcorning menaces and bribes,
" And proving, that his darling cauſe,
" Is of their Liberties and Laws
" To ſtand the Champion? in a word,
" Nor need one argument be heard
" Beyond this, to awake our zeal,
" To quicken our reſolves, and ſteel
" Our ſteady ſouls to bloody bent,
" (Sure ruin to each dear intent,
" Each flatt'ring hope) He, without fear,
" Hath dar'd to make the Truth appear."

They ſaid, and, by reſentment taught,
Each on revenge employ'd his thought,
Each, bent on miſchief, rack'd his brain
To her full ſtretch, but rack'd in vain;
Scheme after Scheme they brought to view;
All were examined, none would do.

When

When FRAUD, with pleaſure in her face,
Forth iſſued from her hiding place,
And at the table where they meet,
Firſt having bleſt them, took her ſeat.
" No trifling cauſe, my darling Boys,
" Your preſent thoughts and cares employs;
" No common ſnare, no random blow
" Can work the bane of ſuch a Foe,
" By Nature cautious as he's brave,
" To Honour only he's a ſlave;
" In that weak part without defence,
" We muſt to Honour make pretence;
" That Lure ſhall to his ruin draw
" The Wretch, who ſtands ſecure in Law.
" Nor think that I have idly plann'd
" This full-ripe ſcheme; behold at hand,
" With three months training on his head,
" An Inſtrument, whom I have bred,
" Born of theſe bowels, far from ſight
" Of Virtue's falſe, but glaring Light,
" My youngeſt Born, my deareſt Joy,
" Moſt like myſelf, my darling Boy.

" Shall

" Moſt Mine, when moſt he Honour's ſeems;
" Nor can be found, at home, abroad,
" So firm and full a ſlave of FRAUD."

She ſaid, and from each envious Son
A diſcontented murmur run
Around the Table; All in place
Thought his full praiſe their own diſgrace,
